FIRST CLASS

First Class friendships, sports, academics, clubs...everything Patriots participated in this year amounted to First Class stature. Genuine Patriot Pride was reflected in every First Colonial accomplishment.

First Colonial friendships matured throughout the year. New friendships blossomed while old friendships strengthened. Friendships bridged all the years as veteran seniors befriended incoming sophomores; some, friends from junior high, renewed their friendships.

First Colonial athletes showed First Class attitudes, skill, and sportsmanship in all areas, from field hockey to wrestling, soccer to football.

Academics at First Colonial played a great part in the year's success. Seniors faced a trying year, including lengthy college applications and SAT's. Juniors managed to overcome what can be the most challenging year of high school, and sophomores adjusted to the rigorous high school scene.

First Colonial clubs strived to demonstrate that they were First Class through both intraschool and community activities.

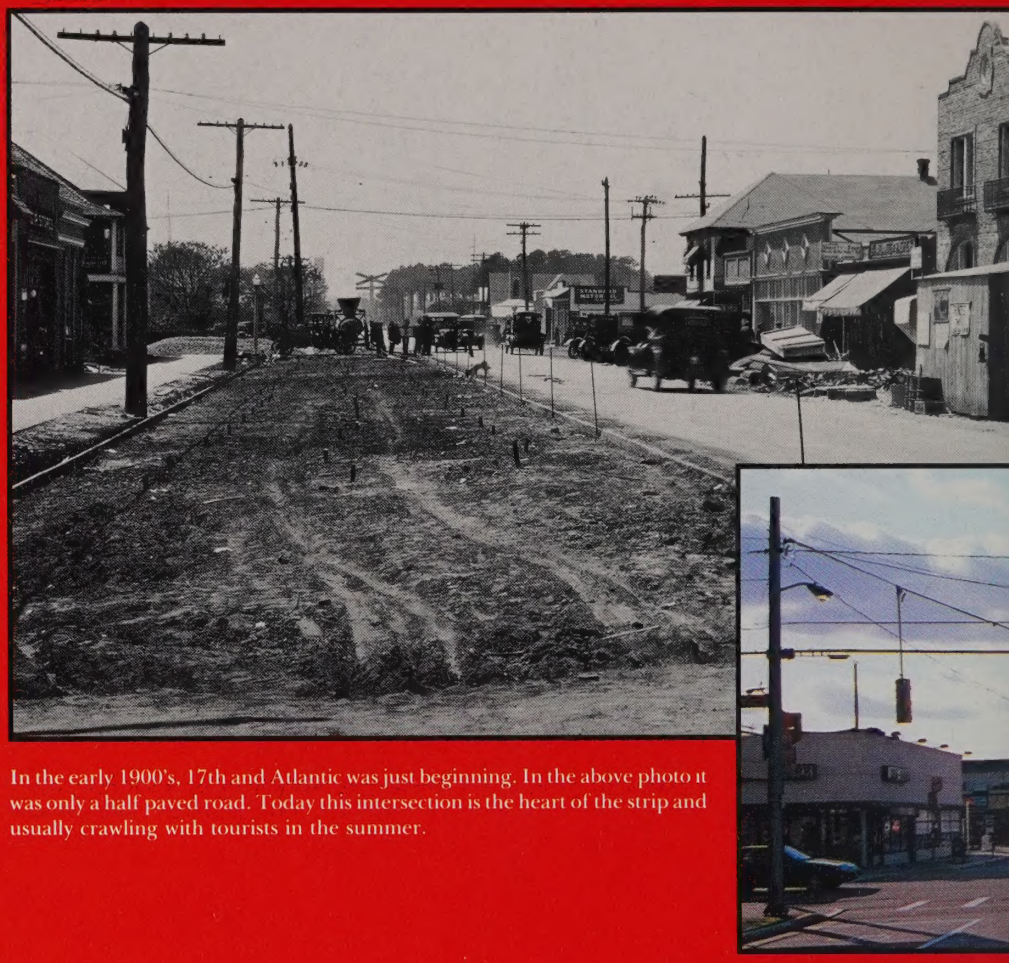
Loyal Patriots exhibited pride and spirit through all endeavors.

Virginia Beach

In 1885, a railroad was constructed from Norfolk to Princess Anne County. This area became the city of Virginia Beach much later.

When people first came to Virginia Beach in the late 1800's and early 1900's, there was only one hotel. The Princess Anne Hotel was constructed in the 1890's. This grand hotel took up four city blocks beginning on 16th street. Unfortunately, a fire brought the Princess Anne Hotel to the ground in 1906. But, before the disaster, cottages were built along the coast to house tourists and new residents. Princess Anne County became a town in 1907.

Virginia Beach began to grow rapidly. The beach was a very popular tourist spot. The strip in the 1920's-40's was spotted with amusement parks. Seaside Park began on 31st street and ended on 34th street, and a roller coaster spanned three or four blocks on the beach, beginning on 8th street. Small cottages and homes occupied the closest spot near the boardwalk. But gradually through the years, Virginia Beach progressed and became a city in 1963.



In the early 1900's, 17th and Atlantic was just beginning. In the above photo it was only a half paved road. Today this intersection is the heart of the strip and usually crawling with tourists in the summer.

A lifeguard's job is never done. Lifeguards used to sit in a high posted chair in the water when the bathing suits were made of wool, making it difficult to swim. Today the lifeguards watch the surf from the beach.

Now And Then

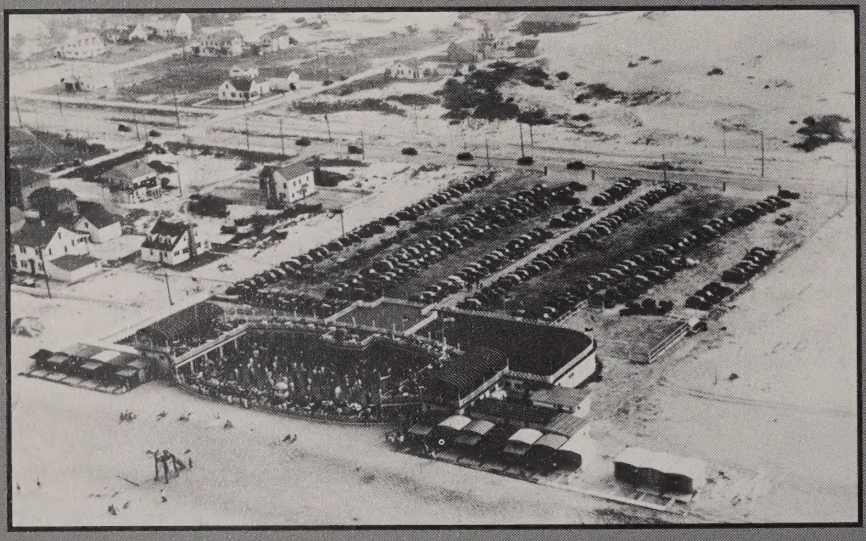
Through the years bathing beauties have ventured to reveal more and more skin. Back in the early 1900's most women wore nylons to the beach.

Surfing has always been a popular sport on the East Coast. In the early days of the sport, the boards were much longer and it was almost exclusively for men.

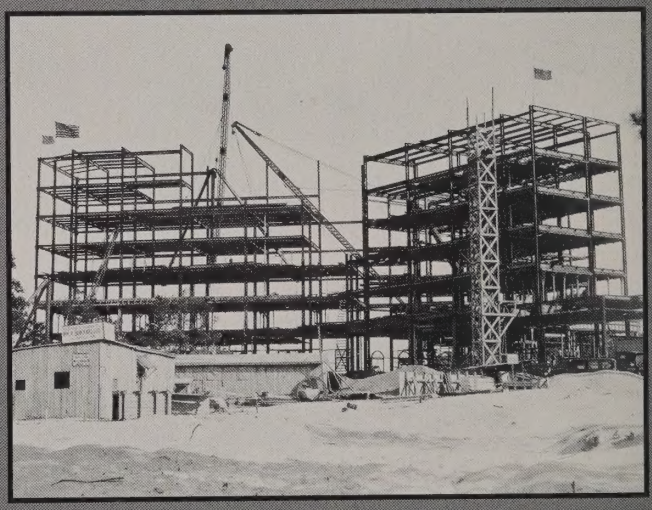
That Was Then...

During the 1930's,a view down the boardwalk consisted of cottages and summer homes. Today the beach is overwhelmed by high rise hotels.

In 1936, the Surf Club on 58th and Atlantic was a popular spot for dining and dancing.



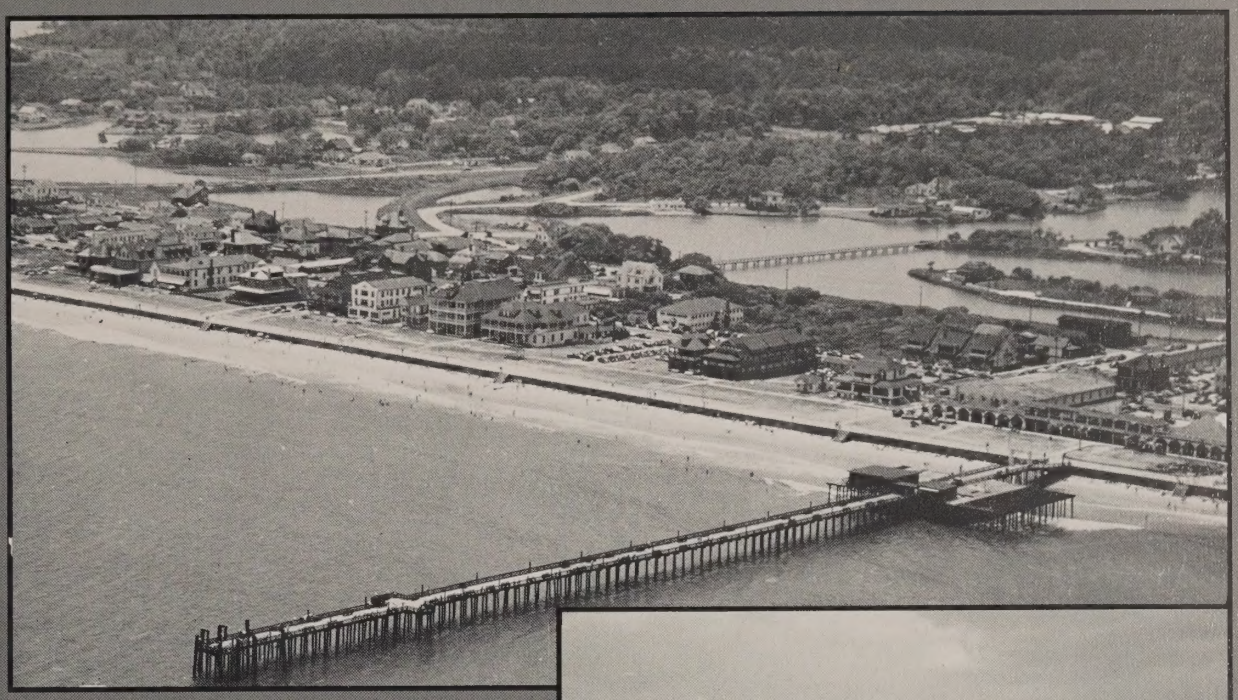
Construction began in the 1920's on one of Virginia Beach's most famous hotels.



Today the Ramada Inn stands on 58th and Atlantic. It is the only high rise hotel north of 44th street.

The Cavalier was completed in 1927. In recent months, restoration has occurred on the lawns of the famous "old" Cavalier.

This Is Now



When the Virginia Beach Pier was constructed, it was much longer than it is today. Unfortunately, in 1986, Hurricane Gloria swept about half of the pier into the ocean.

The bathing beauties of 1926 model their stylish bathing suits.

Back when Seaside Park was the largest attraction to the beach, people could walk above and under the boardwalk. Seaside Park took up four city blocks in the 1930's and today it is a boarded up and abandoned building.

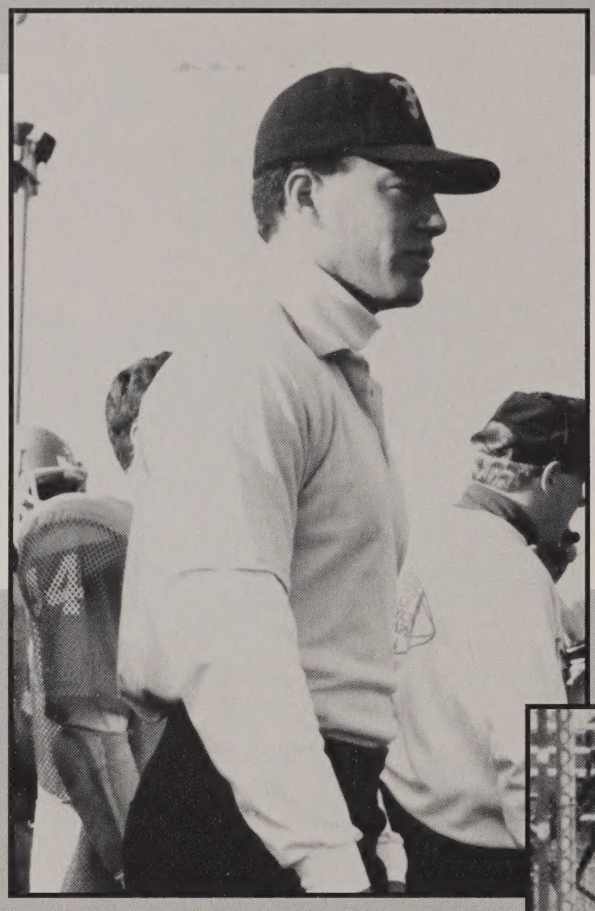
FC GRADUATES OF THE 80'S

Sam Scarborough graduated a decade ago. He returns to FC teaching Technical Drawing and assistant coaching our Eastern Regional Football Champions.



First Colonial is a highly respected school in this city. We are labeled "The Real Beach High School." Holding such a name, our school has graduated many present locals. In the past ten years, FC has hosted our brothers, sisters, cousins, friends, and even a few teachers. We have caught up with several 80's graduates. Although some are still in college, many have gone on to start their own careers. Some have married, some have children. Some have already become accomplished, and others not yet begun. Several have returned to FC. They have come back as part of the faculty. Perhaps some graduates of the 90's will one day return to FC on the other side of the teacher's desk.

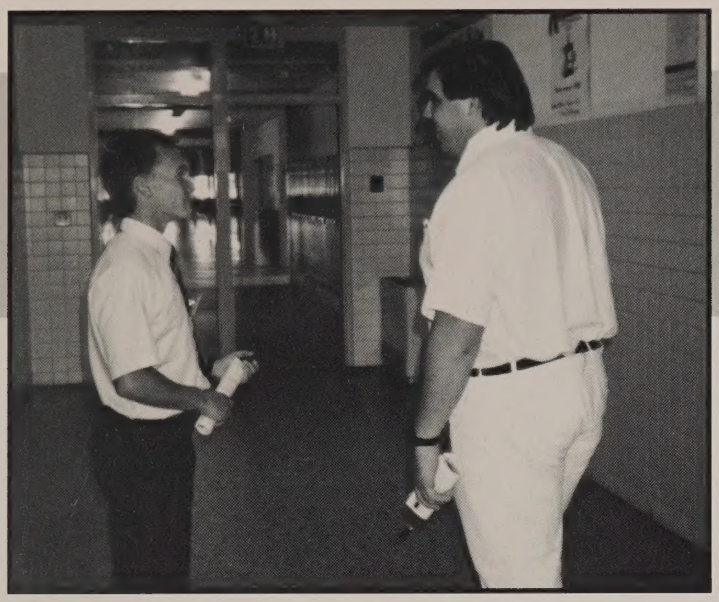
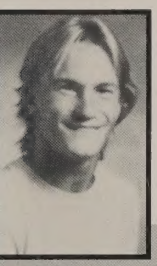
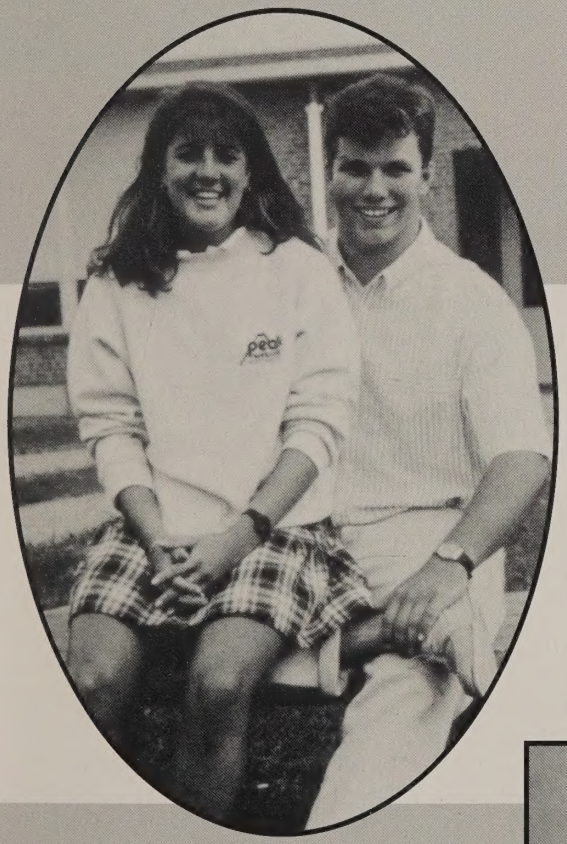
Laurie Shiflet graduated in 1987 holding the top district tennis title. Her talent was passed to her sister Julie, who is the 1990 State Champion.



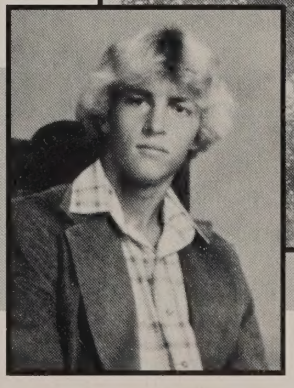


Both graduates of the class of 1983, Willie Kee and Wendall Fifield, now serve as Hall Monitors at FC.

1980 Powder Puff Queen and FC graduate Kevin Keefe is also a graduate of Virginia Tech. Presently he is the Offensive Line Football Coach at Kansas State.



In 1989 Tricia Kinney and Barney Gill were named Best-All-Around by their peers. Tricia is now playing field hockey for ODU and Barney is playing football for JMU.



1980 graduate Charles Kirkley now assumes the identity of Dr. Ding. Surfing since 1970 has prepared him to manage his own shop repairing surfboards.

THE SANDS

Summer . . . sun . . . surf . . . sand . . . sunglasses . . . suntans. All these words describe what summer can mean to fun-loving beach-goers — and F.C. students are definitely that!

As school comes to a close each year, everyone looks forward to free time and relaxation that those summer months bring. Days filled with sleep or frolicking on the beach are awaited by all.

While some play, others work. Summer jobs offer cash to those who enjoy the extras. From lifeguarding to waitressing to working at clothing boutiques or surf shops, the amount of jobs available to those willing to work are abundant.

Vacations are also a part of the summer fun whether just a week in Nags Head or a month in Europe, Patriots always seem to find somewhere interesting to go. However, students aren't the only ones who enjoy traveling to exotic islands or historic sites, teachers also enjoy the change from grading papers to sunning themselves, playing golf, or even scuba diving.

No matter what Patriots did over the summer, there is no doubt that it was fun. When September finally rolls around, students hate to see the lazy days of summer gone. Surprisingly enough, however much Patriots enjoy their summer break, school offers a much-needed change of pace.

Wayne Shackelford enjoyed his summer speaking Spanish at the Spanish Academy.

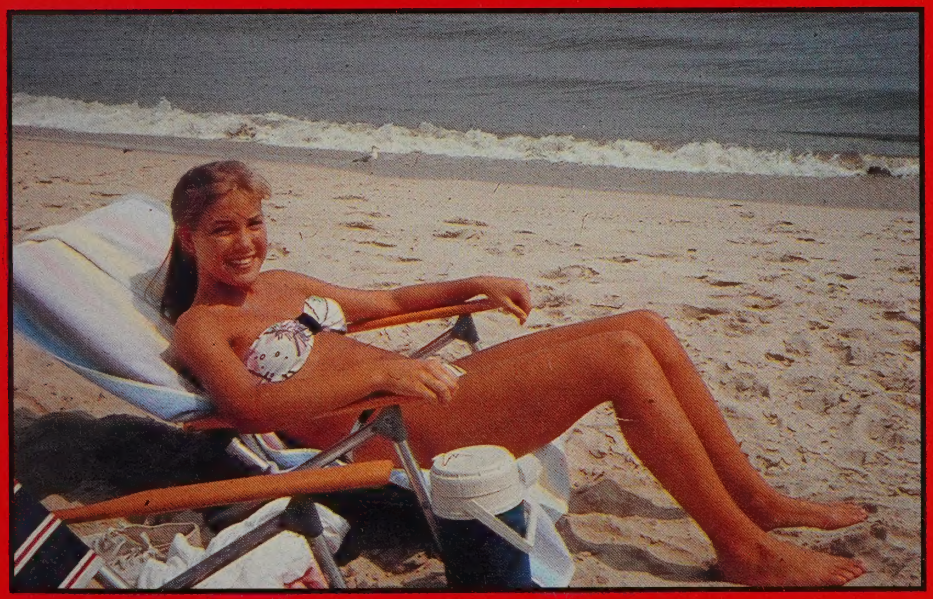
Calee Lucht and Shaye Siegel broadened their horizons over the summer and visited Stonehenge in England.

Missy Moran and Mary Manning spent their summer lifeguarding at Little Neck Swim and Racquet Club.

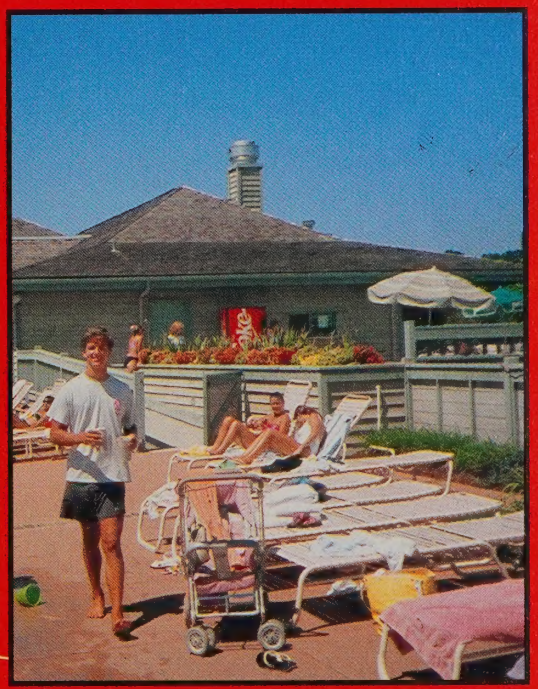
Ashley Blackman spent her summer bathing in the sun.

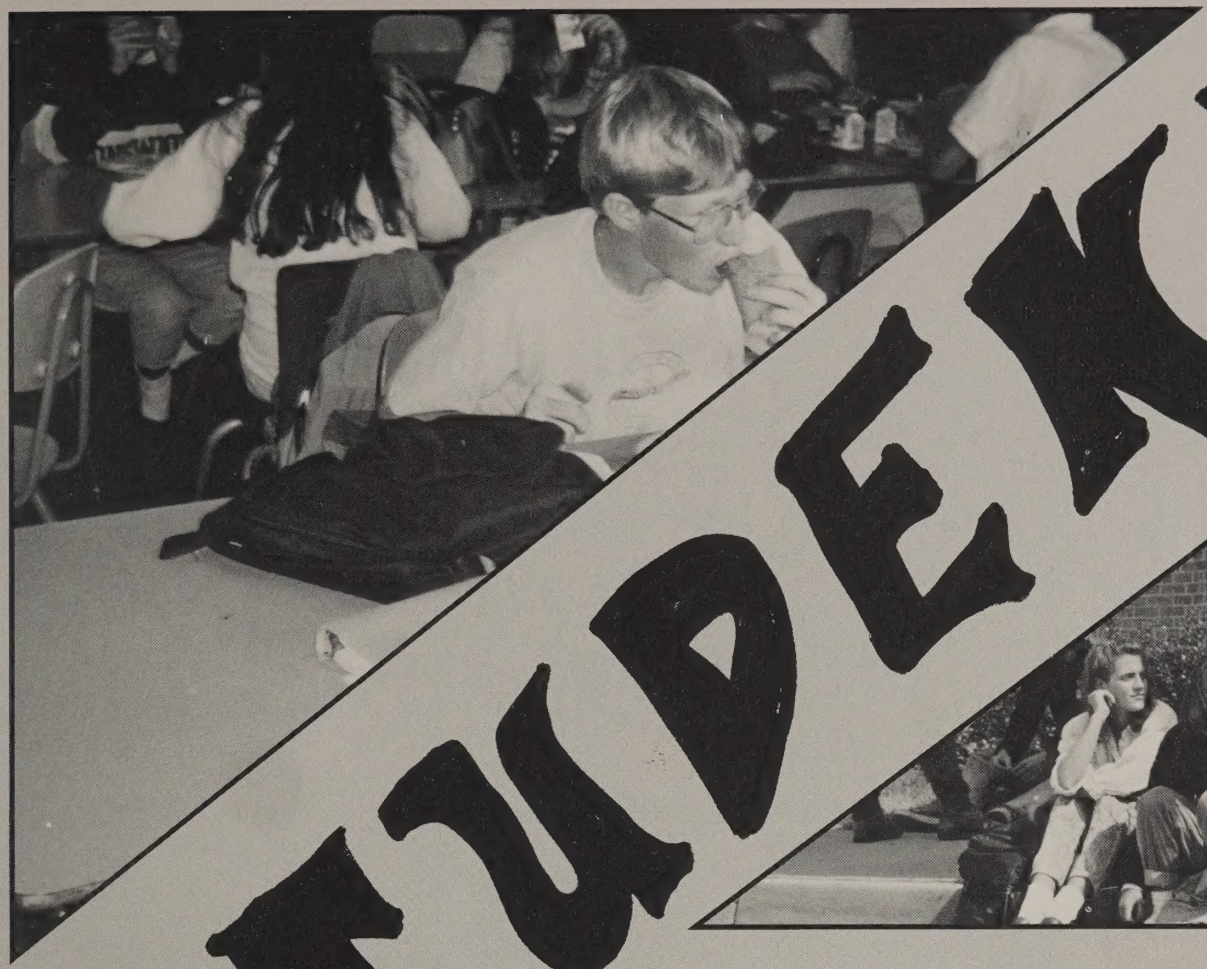
OF SUMMER

Chad Rottela caught air this summer freeboarding behind a boat.



Georgea Groff mastered her tan at the beach all summer.





STUDENT LIFE

Sunbathing, partying, surfing, shopping, and just hanging out...FC's student life — out of school — revolved around activities such as these. Filled with friends and fun, weekends offered a chance to relax and enjoy free time. Any chance to get away from the pressures of school was gladly accepted by all.

Recreation came in various forms. Patriots enjoyed Saturday afternoon football games and other athletic events, movies with friends, parties and meeting new people, hot dinner dates, and virtually any and every other social occassions. Socializing played the dominant role on weekends, however, school often came into play. With group projects to complete, reports to research, and novels to read, FC students also made time to devote to their academic activities.

Patriots also managed to spend time with their families. Busy schedules (during the week) often made this impossible, but on weekends students could go out to dinner or relax in front of the television with parents, brothers, or sisters.

FC student life, whether it consisted of going out with friends or spending a quiet evening at home, was always a First Class happening! -CN

Workin' for a Livin'

First Colonial students are always trying to find ways to make money. Since money is very important to enagers, they are constantly working a riety of jobs. Students work for a variety reasons, such as:

. buying cars
. gas money
. paying for insurance
. clothes
. weekends
. support family
. college
. vacations (spring break)
. birthdays/holidays
. school social events (prom, games)
. fast-food
. pay for speeding tickets

lmost anywhere you go, there are First olonial students working whether they e in the Mall, down at the beach, or at a st-food restaurant.

Marissa Stassi has fun selling shoes.

bove: Nicole Harrison works hard in Farm Fresh.

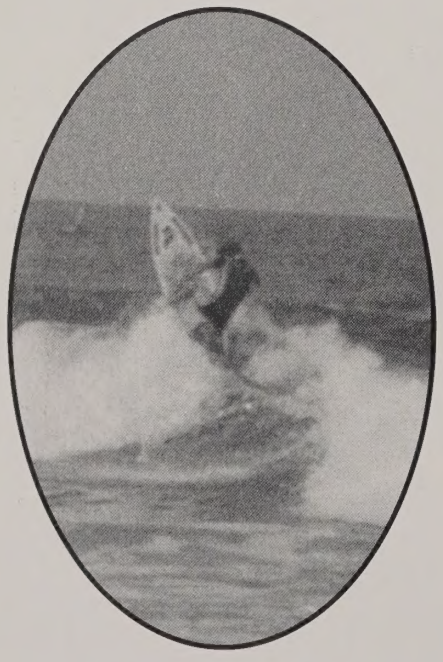
Take A Walk...

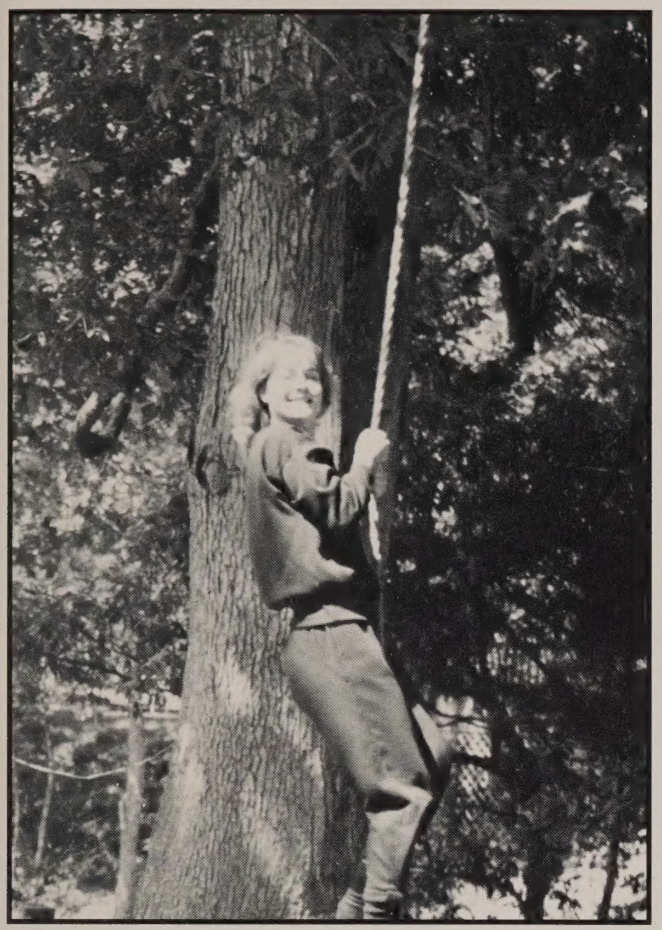
Ellen Kirby sports an unusually WILD look.

Ashley Blackman and Page Atkinson demonstrate a wild version of the batdance.

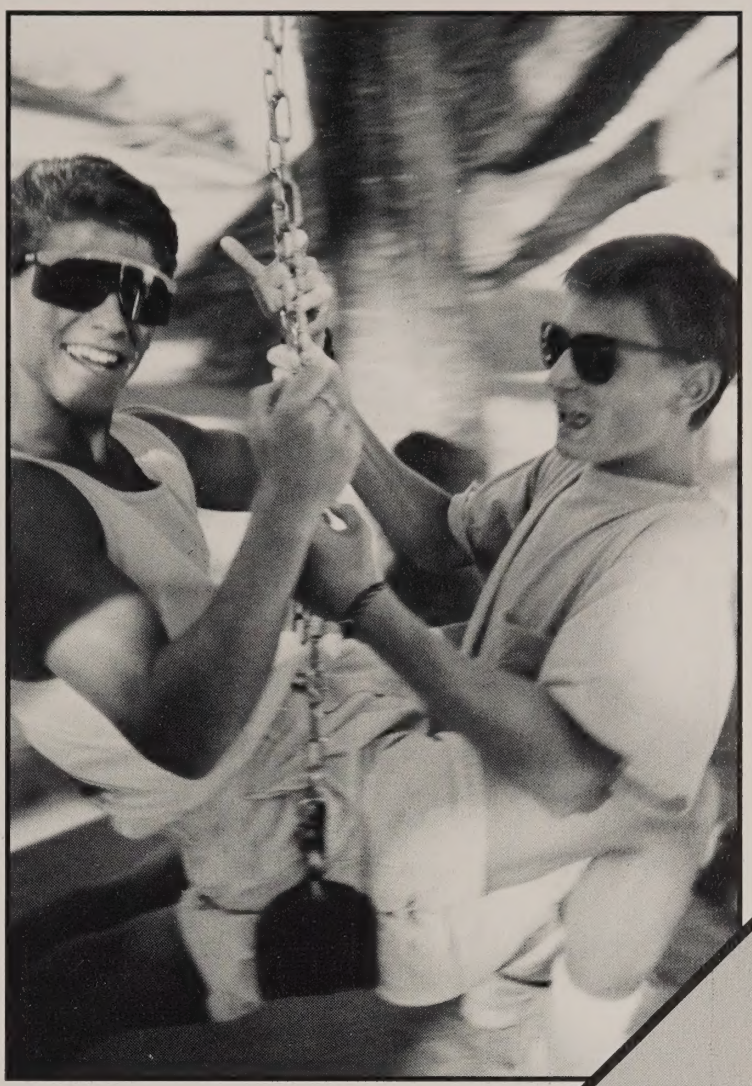


Scott Williams braves the waves!

The Worthless Dizzies rock the wild side!



Krista Bailey goes looking for Tarzan!



Tim and Jimmy, aren't you two just a little bit to old for this?

On The Wild Side!

Dare to do the UNUSUAL. That's what many F.C. students have done. Most new students come to high school unaware of the creativeness that they experience within the halls; and are therefore amazed by the uniqueness of each and every person. These students are not frightned by this, instead they jump right in and enjoy there own creativeness. This is what we have come to call taking a walk on the wild side of life.

Our parents aren't always to pleased with our uniqueness and individuality - but without fail the love of enjoying life to it's fullest overrides authority and allows us to walk the wild side!

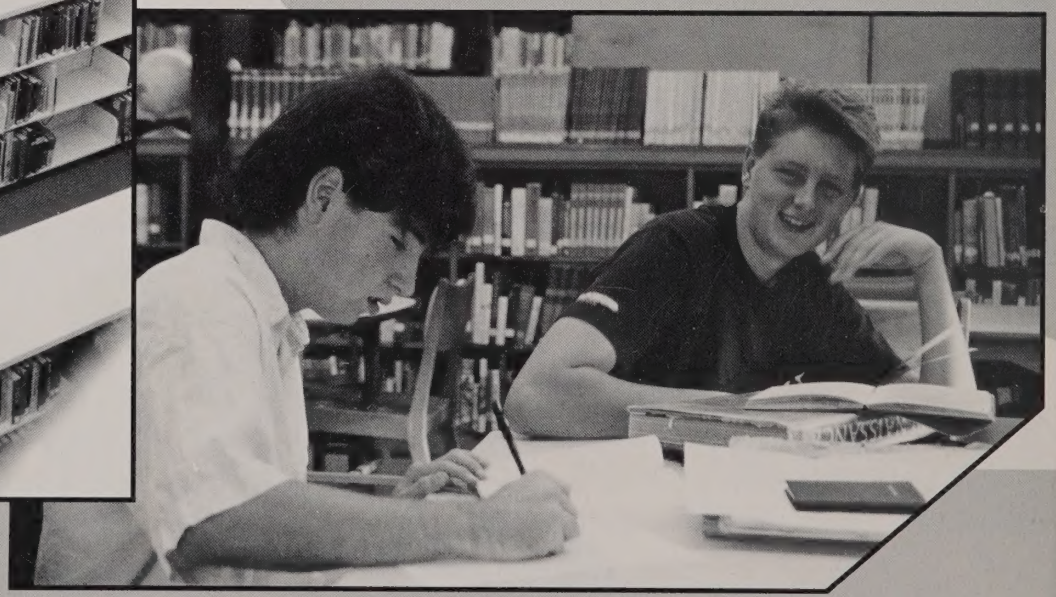
Mary Johnson and Lauren Knispel show the after effects of the wild side.

Hot Spots

Patriots frequented many places over the past year. From parties to the movie theater, Lynnhaven Mall to Young Life trips to Nagshead or Colorado, the places Patriots gathered at ranged all over the country. Local sights offered a chance to get a piece of the city's heritage. One such spot was the Cape Hatteras lighthouse. Other more exotic locales that provided for a relaxing vacation were the Hawaiian Islands and the Young Life trip to Nagshead. Other Patriots traveled to the wild west, once again with Young Life while ski trips played a large role in the winter fun. More studious Patriots spent time out of school at Central Library, or during school in the computer lab. More often, however, the students at First Colonial were found at the mall or movie theater with friends. No matter where Patriots were to be found, they were always enjoying themselves.

The Olive Garden became the newest delicacy for many Patriots.

Movies provided an expensive alterative for weekend fun.



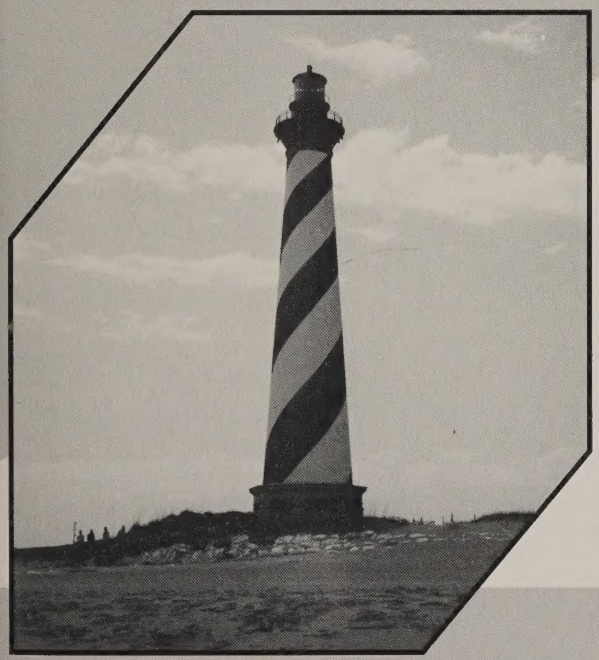
Both FC's library and the Central Library aided with students' homework.

Susan Horne spent a glorious vacation in Hawaii.

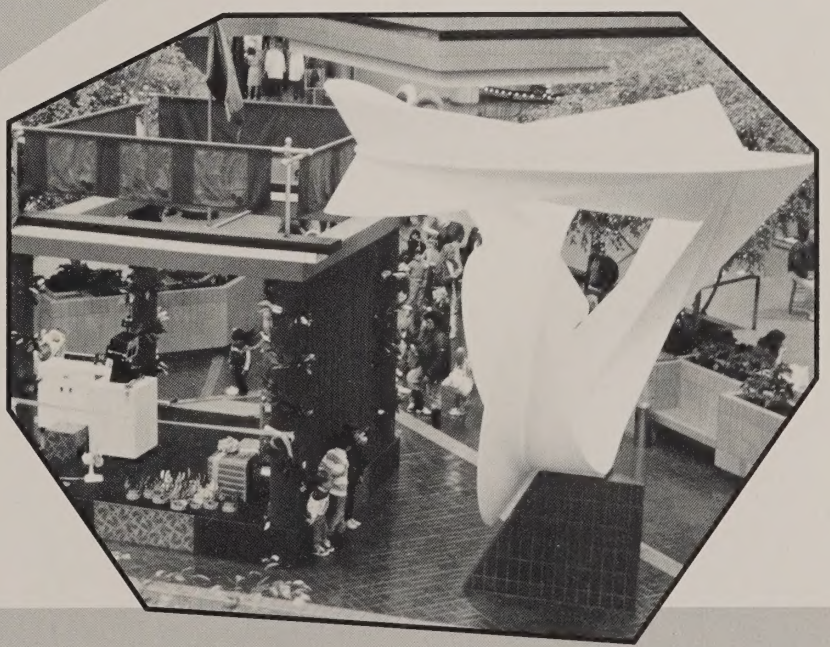
Several Young-Lifers enjoyed the mountain air in Colorado.

Amy Downin, Shannon Frost, and Rebecca O'Sullivan relax on a weekend trip to Nags Head.

Shelley Doolittle and Gwen McDowell obviously can't wait to reach the ski slopes.



A familiar sight for Hatteras surfers.



Christmas at the Mall--Don't you love to shop!?!

Dreaming the Impossible Dream

To fulfill a dream is a wonderful thing. The things worth having in life are the things you must work for. A talent or special skill doesn't just appear. You have to work for it, achieve it, and be the best at it. Just like anything in life, if you fall, you have to get right back up and keep trying. The world is full of so many different thoughts and ideas, anyone can find something at which to succeed. Whether you're an actor, singer, juggler, tuba player, or finger painter you have the opportunity to be the greatest. All it takes to be good at something is will power and a good attitude. Everyone can find his special talent if he looks deep down in his heart and seizes the moment. And remember when you do it, do it first class.

Fun Under The Sun

Weekends, vacations, and summers provide Patriots with an opportunity to "get physical." Aside from the various sports offered at school, many students are interested in racing down snowy ski slopes or playing volleyball on the hot sand. Other FC amusements are water-related, such as jet skiing or fishing. However, horseback riding and skateboarding, are other sports often enjoyed by active patriots. Out of school sports are often more relaxing and less competitive, making students feel "First Class."

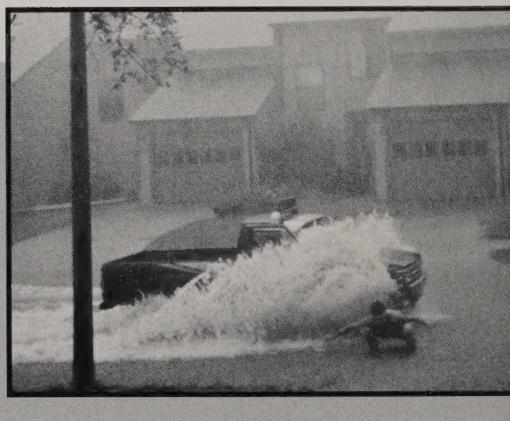
Senior Georgea Groff won the State competition this year riding the horse she owned and trained, Black Tie Affair.



Some Patriots create their own waves in the rain.

Sam Esleeck enjoys White Marlin fishing off Hatteras as mate and angler of Bertrum Fiver.

Senior Sean McClure and friends spend the day skating in a pool.

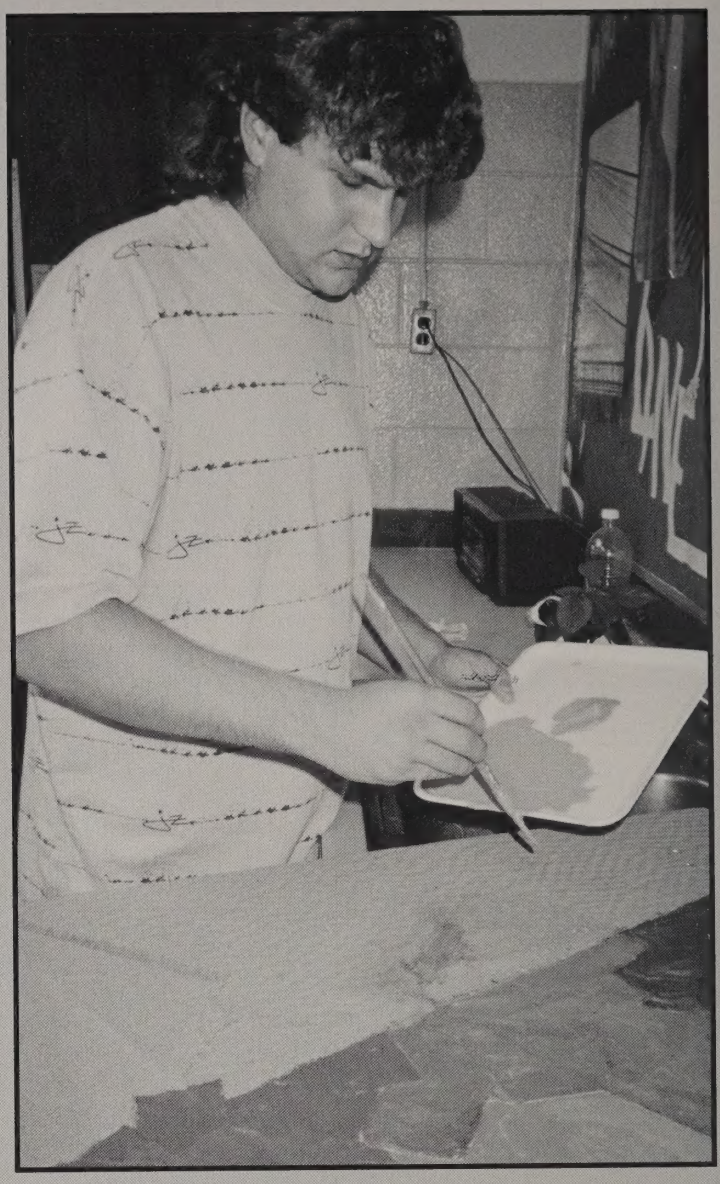
Senior Amy Dunbar appears stressed after a long day of fun-tubing.

Junior Bruce Silverman jet skis in his backyard.



SENIORS

The class of '90. By now, those words have a familiar ring. Seniors have been proudly proclaiming their upcoming graduation for nearly three years. Now, the senior year is almost over and the Class of '90 has experienced almost everything the senior year in high school brings with it.

There is the academic aspect. SAT's, college applications, and challenging courses occupy much of of the senior year. Essays must be typed, meetings at prospective colleges must be scheduled; the whole process is very demanding and time consuming for college bound seniors. Some plan on relaxing for a year or maybe taking some classes at TCC. Whatever the decision, college selection played a large role in the life of the senior.

After school activities added to the senior schedule. Whether through clubs or athletics, most seniors found themselves involved in extracurricular interests.

This year was not just dedication and hard work. Weekends gave seniors a chance to break and hang out with friends or relax alone. Parties, movies, dates, and vacations often enabled the future graduates to push through the year.

As the graduating seniors' last year at FC draws to a close, all can reflect on the opportunities FC has brought them. They have been the underprivileged, unknown underclassmen, and have gained responsibilties and privileges as upperclassmen. When the memories of the 1989-90 school year come flooding back, they will be fond ones for those graduating this year.

Neptune Festival

F.C.'s Marching Band participated in the parade.

Rain drops kept falling on everybody's head during the Neptune Festival weekend. Many students participated in the various festivities that occurred. Some students who participated in the art contest were Will Corr, Mary Ritchie, Spencer Haynesworth, Lisa Rostron, and Paul Bankowski. Four girls participated in the King Neptune's 16th Royal court. Shaye Siegel was the princess from First Colonial and Jennifer Morrison, Ashley McMahan, and Beth Bimson represented the city as three of the four royal ladies. The F.C. band placed third in the high school band competition, ending another fun, successful Neptune Festival.

The Way We Were

Despite the fact that we criticize the 1970's for the pintos, the polyester and the singles bars, many of us would agree that the early seventies was a great time to be a kid.

Our television heroes were Captain Kangaroo, Mister Rogers, Mighty Mouse, Wonder Woman, and the Muppets. The toys we played with were hula-hoops, Weeble Wobbles, toy cars, and silly putty. We scooted around on Big Wheels and we made ourselves dizzy on Sit 'n' Spins. - S.N. & S.M.D.

Spirit Week

When would you see a devil, a Roman, and a hippie walking the halls of F.C. at the same time? During Spirit Week of course! Spirit Week allowed students to show their school spirit by dressing up in their favorite Halloween costumes, togas, "Hippie wear," or just school colors.

The spectrum of costumes seen during the week was as interesting as it was diverse. The week ended with a senior pep rally held in the courtyard during first bell. The rally was followed by an all seniors march through the halls. Later in the day, all students gathered for another pep rally in the football stadium. Thanks to students, the 1989 Spirit Week was a great success. -J.G.

What's the first thing that comes to mind when you hear the word summer...? the beach. That's what most seniors said when asked this question. And what's the worse part about summer?...going back to school.

Everyone loves summer especially in Va. Beach. Living so close to the ocean students have the privilege of spending their summer at the beach, either relaxing in their beach chairs or working as a life-gaurd. And after a long day at the beach, it's time to clean up and go out.

Before students realize it, it's time to head back to school. All high school students dread that day, but for seniors there is little anxiety knowing that it's their last year and realizing that before they know it, summer will be here again.

Summer Jobs

First Colonial students' lives did not end after school let out. With visions of cars or just some extra spending money many Patriots joined the work force for the summer.

Students found work by doing just about everything, from the glamorous job of lifeguard to the thankless job of grocery bagger. Paul Bryant even landed a job as a prime time D.J. for 97-Star, a local top 40's radio station. Other people held jobs as fast food workers, beach rental attendants, cashiers and sales clerks.

So many kids were working, in fact, that most of the "hot spots" were filled with student workers. There were always a few who enjoyed themselves by not working but they were unable to enjoy the main benefit of working — the extra cash.

Wendy Cohen and John Friedman make snow cones all day for tourists and locals at the beach.

What's Your Sign?

Taurus? Libra? Nope, it looks like FC has a fire sign this year.

Catherine Joynt, inspired by African landscapes, conceived the idea for the logo for the class of 1990.

The sign committee met several times at Stephen Shepheard's house over the summer and voted on many designs before agreeing on Catherine's. Meetings were very hectic; everyone wanted to share their ideas at once and it got chaotic at times. Imagine twenty seniors in one room, brainstorming on a project which had to be completed in a matter of weeks!

Every day after the sign had been decided on, Stephen Shepheard, Amy Kay, Jimmy Gnass, Will Corr, and Catherine Joynt came to paint. With teamwork and dedication, the senior sign committee produced the logo which can be seen on the front of our school building and the back of t-shirts inspiring students to "seize the moment." - S.N.

SATs

8:30 am on a Saturday morning; students nervously file into the school auditorium. Their mission — to complete in about three hours one of the most feared tests nationwide — the infamous SAT, or Scholastice Aptitude Test.

Students dread waking up early on a Saturday morning after finishing a long, tiring week of school. Besides these little tasks, they are then expected to have enough endurance to last the entire test with only one or two five minute breaks between sections of the math, vocabulary, and standard written English.

The vocabulary section is quite a challenge when students are supposed to know the meanings of such words as lassitude, encumber, devoid, tawdy, and unctuous.

BEST FRIENDS...

High school is a time for developing lasting friendships. Best friends can share the deepest secrets and hours of laughter and sadness. But the real test of friendship is sticking by each other in times of trouble for comfort and support. - K.M.

FRIENDSHIP

When everyone turned away, you were the only one to stay. You fought with me through good and bad. We stayed together through happy and sad. Although I had a doubt, I knew we could work it out. When something would make us fight, we'd pull through, no matter how tight. I hope we're never totally apart, 'cause you're my best friend, I know in my heart.

In the spring of 1989, the junior class got together to vote for the class officers of their graduating year. All of the candidates were qualified, but four students proved themselves to be exceptionally creative, motivated, and willing to do anything for their class.

One had a KUNG FU skit, another played guitar and sang, another dressed up in a superhero costume and told the class what she loved about First Colonial. The last candidate performed a rap song and in her own way eliminated the formality of a speech. These students are Kevin Stewart, Treasurer; Cret Wilson, Secretary; Jennifer Wellman, Vice-President; and Amy Kay, President.

As senior class officers Kevin, Cret, Jennifer, and Amy have held meetings every Wed., worked on the class float for Homecoming, sold donuts and candy, organized a ski trip and planned for senior prom. The class of 1990 officers worked hard to maintain the level of sport for which their class is famous.

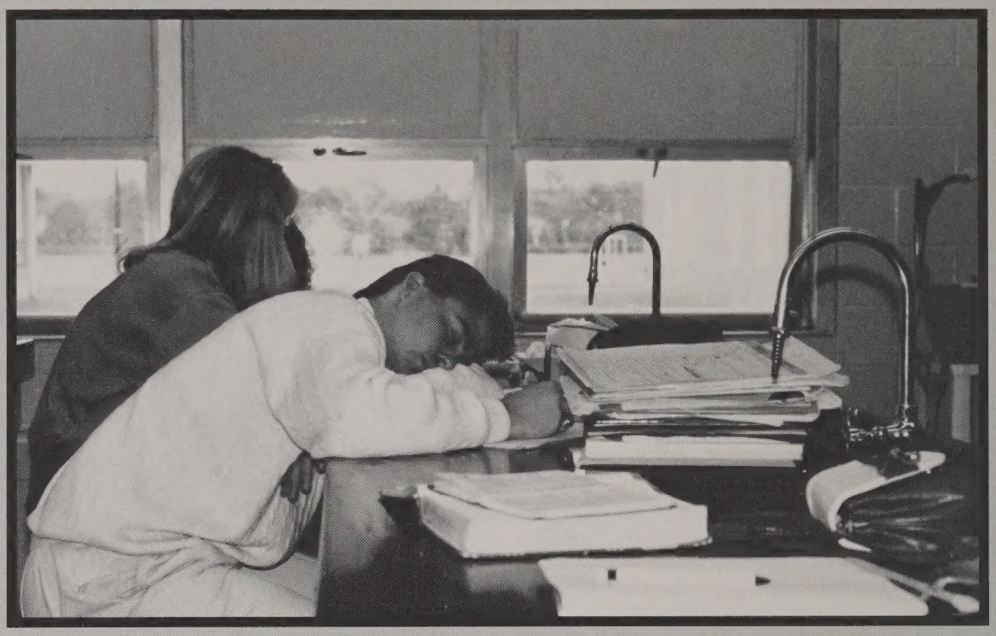
Senior Slump

The most dreaded disease of them all. It's the disease that hits almost all seniors, and in-turn seriously effects your classroom participation and GRADES. Teachers think that it is only laziness, yet this is not true. Senior Slump is definitly a real disease! It cripples you from doing your homework, studying, or even paying attention in class.

Though senior slump may cause grades to plummet, it also allows your senior year to be more bearable and less physically painful.



Steven Shepheard is struck with senior slump as he sleeps in Physics class.

The "C" Word!

University of Virginia, Old Dominion, James Madison, Radford, Virginia Tech, William and Mary, Mary Baldwin, Mary Washington, Longwood, George Mason, Elon, East Carolina, Tulane, Duke, Harvard, Yale, Oxford. AAAAAAAHHHHH! Which one? So many to choose from. Not to mention transcripts, scholarships, financial aid, etc. to fill out.

These were trying times for seniors. By the end of January, most of the seniors had their applications in. Then the wait came. From January till April, almost four months, seniors waited in anticipation. This was usually when senior slump set in. It lasts till April, when most of the colleges sent their acceptance or denial letters out. Whether the envelope was fat or skinny, the seniors were relieved because they had taken the first big step towards their successful future.

Seniors were asked: "If you could go to any college you wanted to, where would you go and why?"

"Duke, it's very friendly and personal, not to mention the guys!" - Calee Lucht.

So long, fairwell, aufwiedersehn, good night, I hate to go and leave this pretty sight.

So long, fairwell, aufwiedersehn, Adieu, Adieu, Adieu to yieu, and yieu, and yieu.

So long, fairwell, aufwiedersehn, Au revoir Aufu I'd like to stay and taste my first champagne

I'm glad to go, I can not tell a lie. I flit, floot, fleetly flee, I fly.

The sun has gone to bed and so must I.

So long, fairwell, aufwiedersehn, Goodbye, Goodbye.

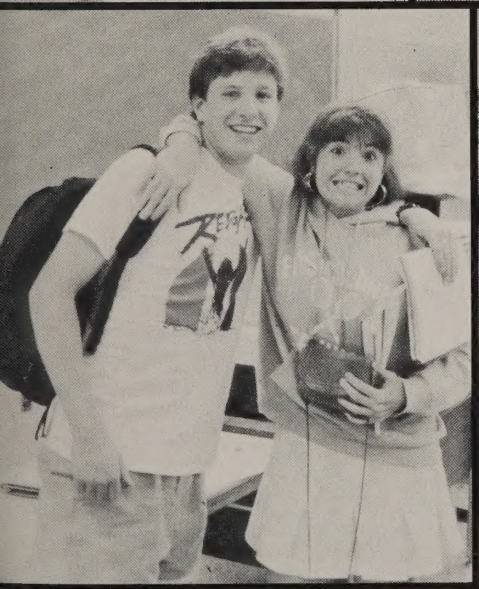
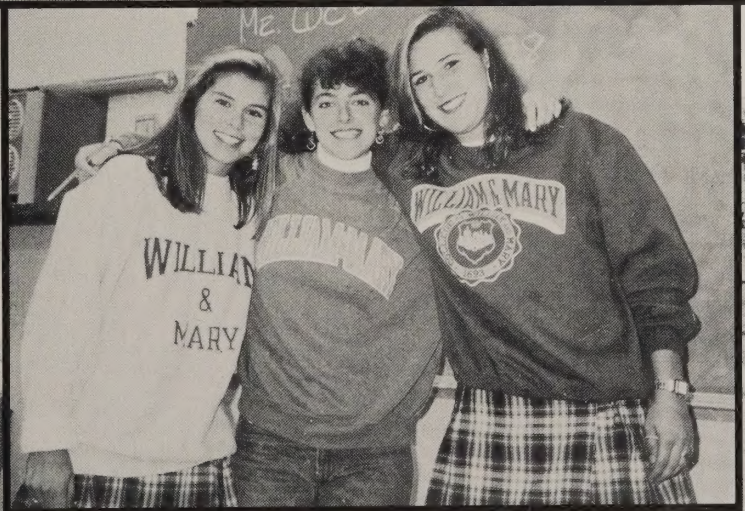
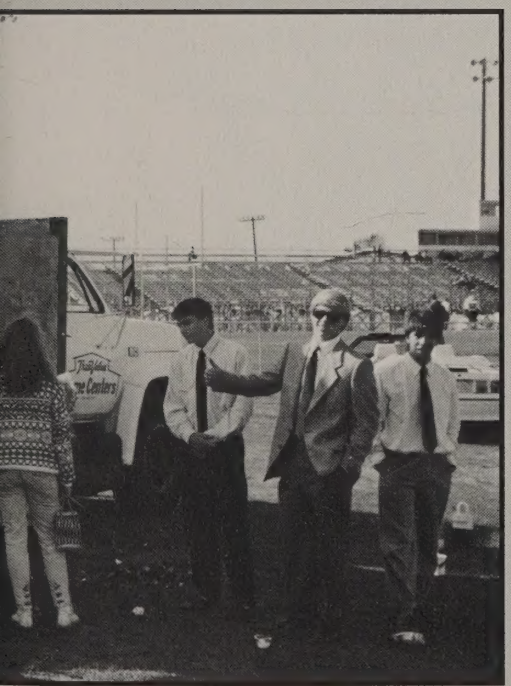
To Seniors





WE'RE OUT OF HERE!



For juniors, this year was quite a change from the sophomore year. Everyone had a year to get used to First Colonial and the rigors of high school. New friends had been made, and teachers faces were familiar. It was a year full of fun, new experiences and hard work.

Becoming more involved in school activities proved very successful, especially during Homecoming. Juniors dedicated themselves to organizing projects that could help pay for the junior ringdance in the spring. They sold locker shelves and junior class t-shirts. These activities united the junior class, perhaps for the first time.

Friendships formed last year had a chance to grow stronger throughout the 1989-90 school year. No longer were people thought of as from Lynnhaven or Virginia Beach or whichever junior high was attended; rather, everyone's new status was that of a Patriot.

Academics during junior year are often the toughest. The junior class overcame the difficult classes by dedication and hard work. Some took an AP course for the first time to prepare themselves for "real life" in college, and to earn some college credits.

As junior year comes to a close, everyone can breathe a sigh of relief. Next year will bring the honor and responsibility of senior year- but here's to a first Class year!

11th Grade Electees

The class of '91 excelled in many different areas, including academics, athletics, and extracurricular activities. Strong, spirited leaders contributed to the success of the senior class. Kevin Reavis, president, coordinated many of the activities, including t-shirt sales during spirit week, selling locker shelves, and the junior class ringdance. Trey Huelsberg, vice-president, represented the class in ICC. Jeff Causey, secretary, was the behind-the-scenes man designing locker shelves and the float. Chipp Boggs did an excellent job of balancing a successful football season and keeping the treasury straight. The 1989-90 school year was greeted by enthusiastic officers willing to devote their time and effort to making their junior year the best ever!

1989-90 Junior Class Officers: Trey Huelsberg, vice president; Kevin Reavis, president; Jeff Causey, secretary.

Multi-talented Chip Boggs manages to juggle a succesful pregnancy with a rewarding football season and an outstanding job as class treasurer.

Class-ic of '91

The Model T..."I Love Lucy"...James Dean...Converse hi-tops...silver dollars... hula hoops...Classic Coke...What do those things have in common? They are all "classics", the theme of this year's homecoming. As soon as the theme was announced, the class of '91 began making plans for their float. The creative wheels creaked as committees came together, throwing forth ideas. Soon the secret construction site (later revealed as Ben Hancock's house) was chosen, and the junior builders went to work. Dilemmas such as where to find an infinite number of paper napkins or how to keep the dry ice from fizzling out before the truck was halfway around the track, quickly arose and were addressed by the hardworking officers. Little by little, the float -- a smaller version of the Grecian Parthenon -- began to take shape. The building was finished and the white sheets were draped around it. After the float was mounted on the flatbed ivy was wound around the columns and statues were set in place. However, all was not simply peachy -- on the way to the game the Parthenon almost teetered off the truck! But, as Lisa Hudson put it, "All's well that ends well!" - C.N.

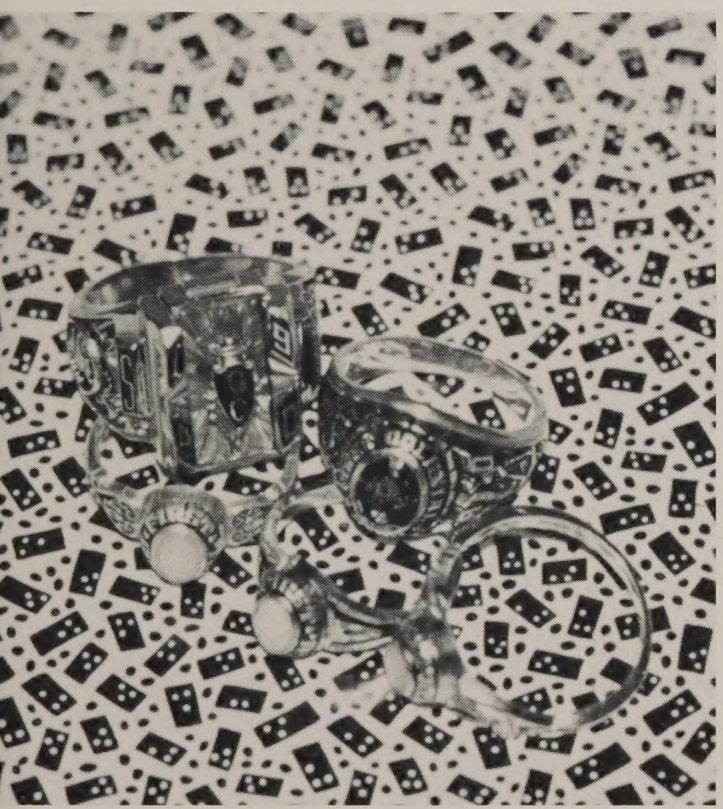
As the Ring Turns...

This year like last year many students bought class rings. And while some students may question their value a year from now, most students agree that the class ring is a symbol of seniority. The rings distinguish the seniors from the rest of the school. Let's face it-they're tools of intimidation. A shiny class ring lets a sophmore know not to get in your way in the hall, not to cut you in the lunch line, and above all not to take your chair in the cafeteria. Perhaps that's a slight exaggeration, but a class ring is something special. A class ring shows that you've been there, you've put the time in, and that you're almosts finished with your high school years. R.I.

Selecting rings is certainly a personal choice. Laura Tetlow and Charnelle Brosius are among students who m someday pass on their ring as an heirloom to their kids.

tacy Merriwether chooses a ring that corresponds with his vivacious personality.



Class rings come in all shapes and sizes to fit every individual's personality.

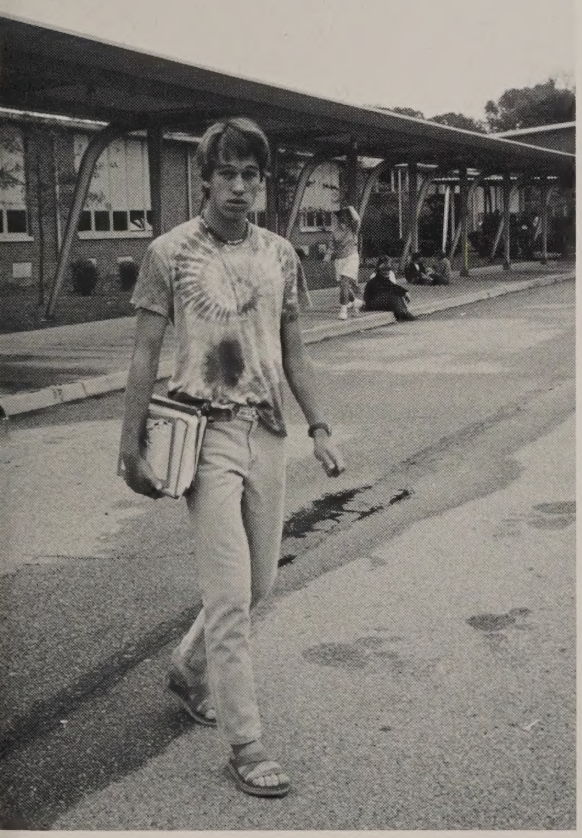
Blame it on the night

Late!?! No. not me...okay mom, honestly, I have I good reason for being late. The night-life for FC students often extends into very late hours on the weekends. Unfortunately for us, our parents tend to make stiff punishments for being late. C.J. Good excuses to use: "Mom. we got a flat tire and we had to wait for someone who knew how to change it." - Amy Dunbar "Mom, there was a huge accident and I was curious." -Jennifer Losee "The roads were flooded and I had to wait for the tide to go down." - Trent Toner "My watch stopped!" - Michelle Serrano "What, I thought it was still daylight savings time!" - Meredith Barret "I fell asleep in Sandbridge." - Jeff Randolph "Mom, my best friend was stranded at the party, and I couldn't leave her!" - Wendy Cohen



Gene Bowman was late going home because he got lost in the '60's.

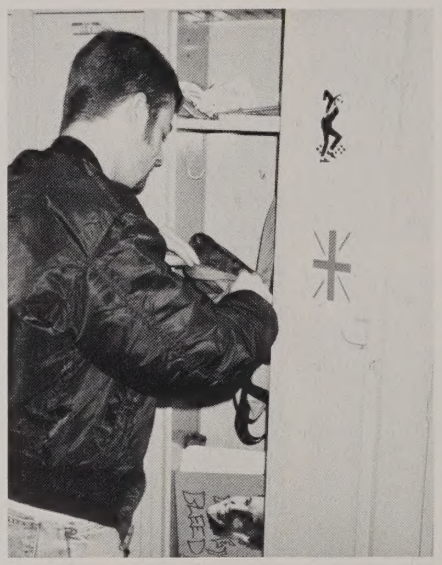
Lockers provide "space"

You are slowly shuffling down the hall between classes. You scan the area for your locker and spot it six feet away. Unfortunately, it is blocked by a moving mass of students on the other side of the hall. Keeping your eyes locked on the locker, you try to squeeze through the crowd. You seem to be making progress; your locker is almost within reach. All of a sudden,you look and see a plaid shirted student aggressively pushing his way through everyone! You know that if you can just make it a little bit further, you can safely arrive at your locker. With a burst of adrenilin, you make a mad dash for the locker, just being missed by the student in plaid.

Many students feel a sense of accomplishment when they make it to their locker. Lockers provide adequate space for pasted-up pictures, bagged lunches, and the occasional book. They are oftentimes meeting places for friends and couples. Lockers are a vital part of the lives of F.C. students.



Ryan Thomas uses his locker to hang up his book bag.

Up Up and Away

It was the bottom of the ninth. My team was down by thre runs and there were already two outs. And of course, I wa the next batter up. The game depended on me. My coac just stood there telling me to hit a grand slam. A grand slam! I ha a better chance of winning Publsher's Clearing Hous ???sweepstakes. As I stumbled up to the plate, I took a glimpse a the field. The whole field seemed to triple in size. The outfielde reminded me of miniature ants. The line to first base was so long you could have landed an airplane. The pitcher was winding u for the first pitch. Zoom. Strike. Here comes pitch number two Phew! Strike number two. No sweat. I still have one more strike Just because I'm jumping inside like a piece of popcorn in a mic rowave doesn't mean anything. the next pitch will be the next on for sure. There's the wind up! He whirls it at me. WHAM!! Ouch My leg. The pain is incredible. I look down, the ground -- it's no dirt; it's marble. Where am I? Oh no, please don't let it be. I'm going to die. This is my chemstry class. I slowly lift my eyes everyone is gathered near me and laughing. I must have doze off during the lecture. Just great, now I've made a fool of myself

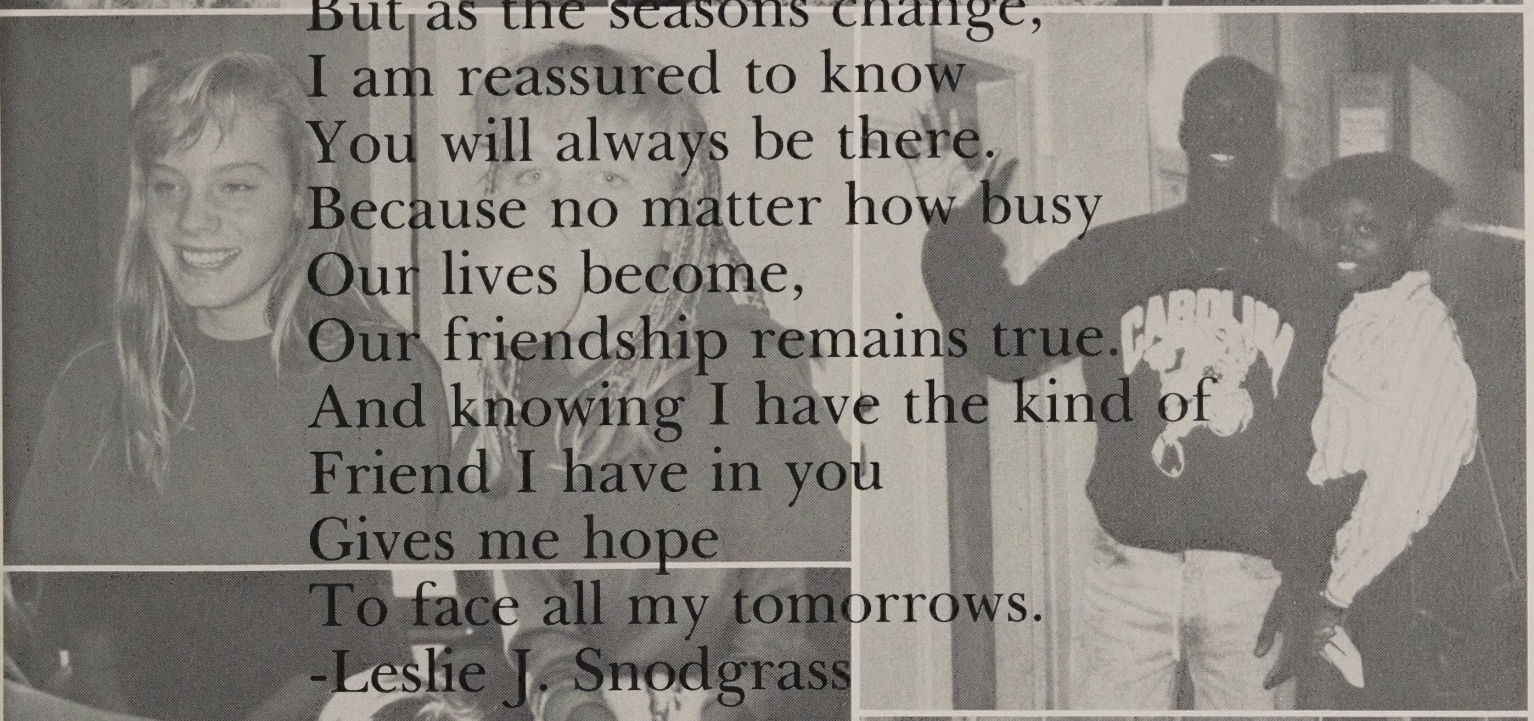
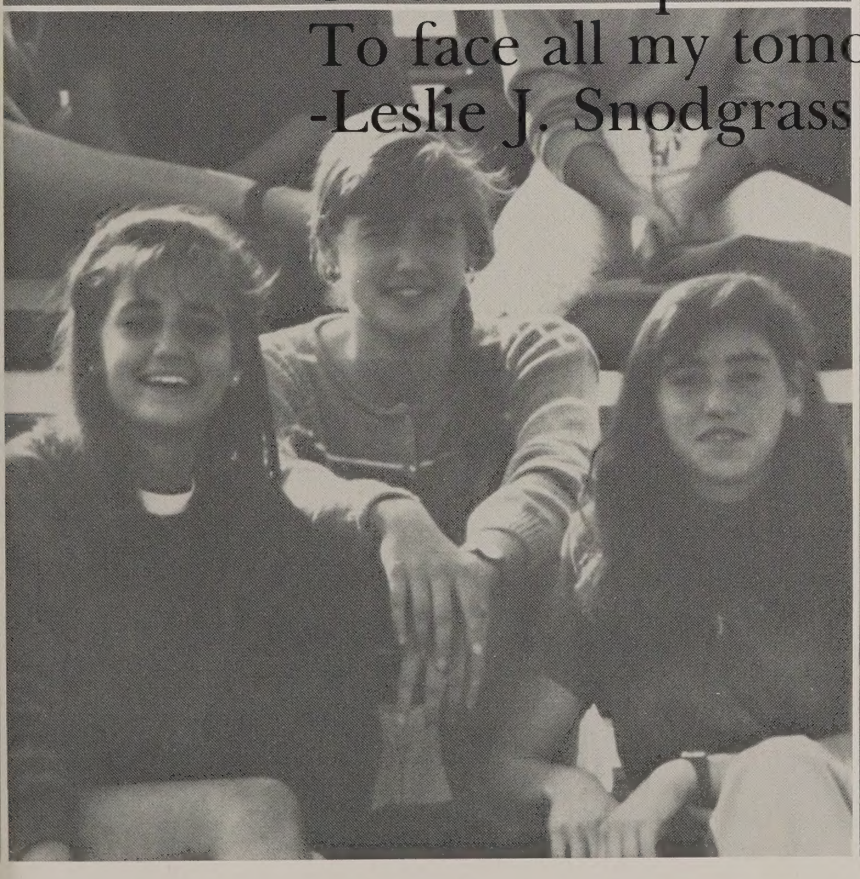
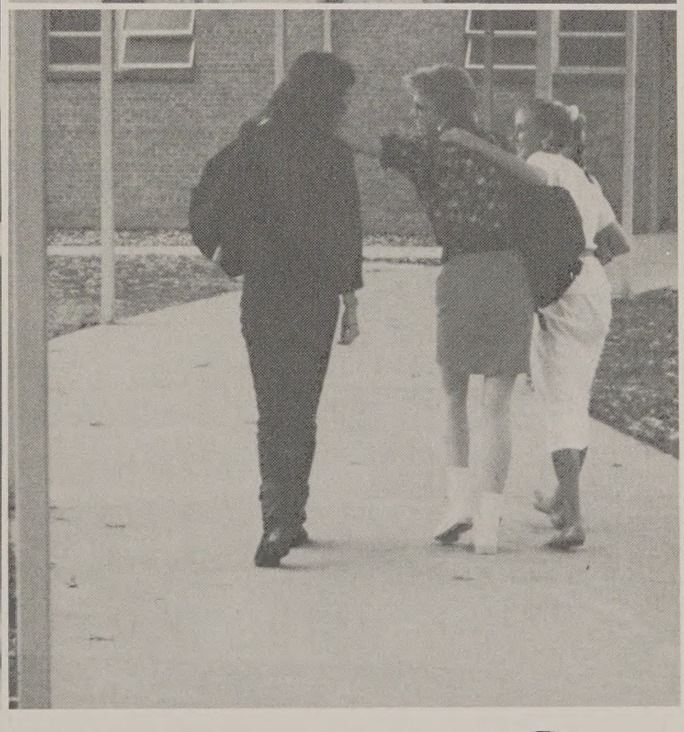
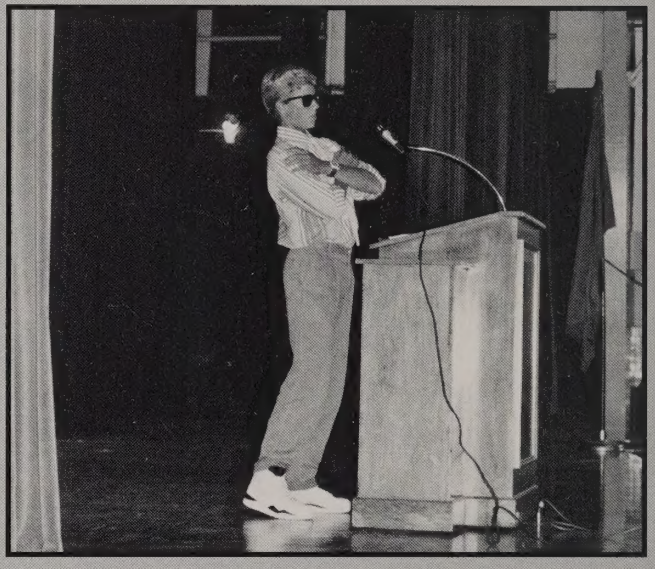
FRIENDS...

Through the season of our lives,
Friends come and go.
Some stay longer than others.
Some touch us, and then are gone.
But as the seasons change,
I am reassured to know
You will always be there.
Because no matter how busy
Our lives become,
Our friendship remains true.
And knowing I have the kind of
Friend I have in you
Gives me hope
To face all my tomorrows.
-Leslie J. Snodgrass









SOPHO-MORES

Every year the new First Colonial Patriots, ushered in as sophomores, begin high school amid confusion, bewilderment, and excitement.

For sophomores, the tenth grade is like a whole new beginning. New friends are found everywhere from classes to club meetings to athletic teams. Friendships are made throughout the whole year-friends that last through high school and beyond. Unfamiliar teachers become a more familiar sight. Their friendliness and understanding help the new Patriots become accustomed to their surroundings.

Along with looking forward to the fun high school brings, there are always thoughts of the work and academic requirements necessary to make the year a success. The freedom of high school is accompanied by greater responsibility. The workload can be heavy at times, yet the rewards more than compensate.

The bright-eyed sophomores add new flavor to First Colonial as they bring their First Class attitudes and enthusiasm to the school.

Sophomores quickly accepted by the upper classmen. Times are tough at first, but as the weeks roll by, they become just another face in the crowd alongside juniors and seniors.

Time flies faster than ever when you start high school. It's hard to believe, but before you know it, it's over. Each year the cycle starts over with a new sophomore class. Today's sophomore is tomorrows senior-enjoy it while you can!

Creative Leaders of '92

Kites, beach balls, spray paint, stickers, flyers, pins, candy, and a Michael Jordan poster; the sophomore class office candidates had them all.

Just three weeks into school, sophomores were asked to choose class officers to carry the class through the upcoming year.

A hard week of campaigning preceeded the elections. Each candidate had his/her own creative style. There were kites soaring through the halls reading,"Fly high with Kristen Schwerer for V.P." and several beach balls promoted "The Barton Connection."

Campaigning isn't everything, though. It all boils down to the speeches and this year there was quite an original variety of them. Helen Kent kept everyone laughing with her impressions and Rachel Levinson did the same by saying, "My heart for the king" with her own ending. "A lot of the speeches were really good and it was hard to decide on who to vote for!" says Olivia Weisbard.

As the week came to an end, the votes were cast. The officers elected to lead the sophomore class through their first yearat F.C. were: Helen Kent, president; Bob Barton, vice-president; Rachel Levinson, secretary; and Heather Hopwood, treasurer.

"Everyone did a great job and had a lot of fun with the elections," says Mrs. Schultz, the sophomore class sponsor -- "I'm really looking forward to working with everyone this year!" Great job everyone!

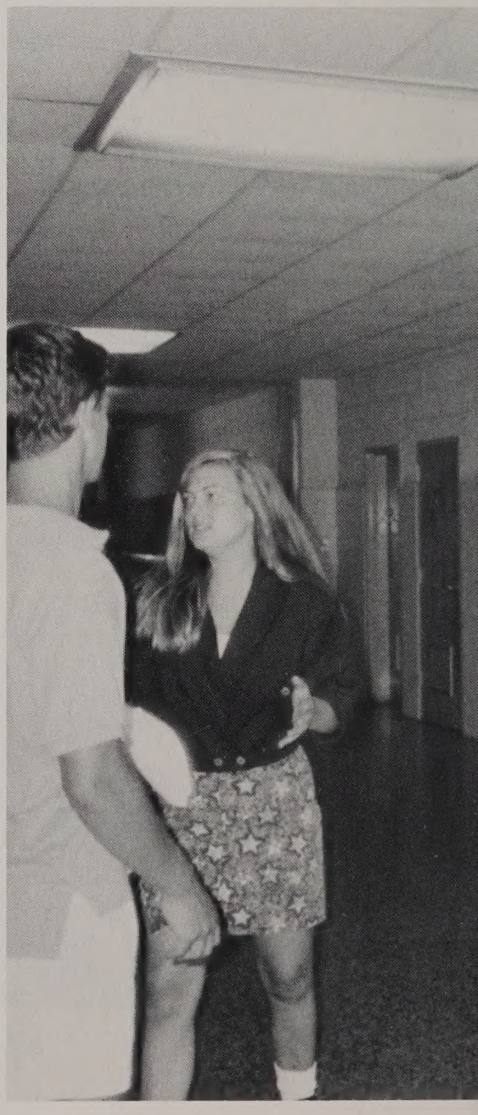
Fashion shows...skits...guided tours...refreshments...Would the guarantee of such an exciting morning entice you to pull yourself out of bed before lunch on one of the few summer days left? If so, you may have been included among the sophomore orientation on August 23. All of the promised events and more were performed by the dedicated S.C.A. officers. Mr. Atkinson welcomed the up-and-coming tenth graders, then John Dinsmore, our S.C.A. president, introduced himself and described the numerous activities offered after school. After taking the grand tour, the sophomores were more familiar with the building and better prepared to face their first day of classes. The tour culminated in the cafeteria where plates piled high with fudge cookies were served. Sophomore Deborah Chung expressed her excitement after orientation when she said, "I feel like I'm finally in high school!"

Sophomores catch their first glimpse of First Colonial's interior.



Amy Kay and Todd Wehmann introduce the class of '92 to the 300 hall, home of future architects, painters, and homemakers.

GCA officers Jamie Frantz and John Dinsmore rapidly prepare for the hungry horde of sophomores, fresh from the orientation tour.

The Last Stride

It started three years ago in the seventh grade. Although, if you get technical, it really began in elementary school. Remember when we had those designated PE days in the cafeteria? Though some of us were fortunate enough to have gyms. All the girls wore skirts to try to get out of it, but it didn't work. We girls knew it wouldn't too, so that's when the skirts became shorts. Then came along the grades. Teachers invented awful excuses so they could torture us into wearing those ugly, outdated uniforms of those patriotic colors of red and blue with the white stripe on the shorts. We had to, or, well, we'd fail. Well, we've come a long way since then. We've matured from crab soccer with a medicine ball to volleyball, the real beach sport. We've conditioned ourselves from the 600 yard run to the mile.

The ones who will really miss PE are for the most part, the ones who are involved in the extra-curricular sports. Good luck to those people. Meanwhile, for the ones who can't imagine life without PE, sign up for eleventh grade with your counselor! -J.B.

16 candles

Today is the big day. It seemed so far away six months ago, but now, today, you're sixteen. Your parents call you into the den. They have that look on their faces, that look when they have something special to tell you. It's always in the kitchen when you're in trouble and in the den when it's a good suprise. "Close your eyes, honey." She puts something in your hand -- it feels like keys -- the keys to your dream. "It's out in the driveway," they say, with that silly grin on their faces.

Wow! Your own car, your first very own car. This means FREEDOM, being in charge of your own life -- going where you want to go and doing what you want to do (within reason, of course!). That's what's becoming sixteen means to most FCians, reaching closer to adulthood and leaving the ranks of being a kid.

It's one thing to be sixteen, but it's another to be sixteen and be owning your own wheels. No more waiting for mom and dad to pick you up at the mall where no one can see you getting picked up, no more bumming rides off people that you would rather not ride with. It's just you out on the open road.

Now the moment has come. "Don't just stand there. Go check it out!" your mother says enthusiastically. You walk as fast as you can to your dream, trying not to look too excited and trying harder to act cool. "Well, there it is!" they say. Oh boy -- your very own riding lawn mower. Now you can mow the lawn faster and it will be so much easier. You can also use it to mow the neighbors' yards, so you can eventually buy what you thought you were getting -- that car of your dreams.

With visions of freedom in her head, Catherine Nash celebrates her 16th birthday.

Mary Johnson, showered with confetti, walks in the door of her sweet sixteen birthday party.

Prized possessions of a 16 year old - a driver's license, driving shades, and keys to your own car.

Mastering The Road

One of the most important things sophomores experience is going through behind the wheel. It is a week or two of pure humiliation as you make a pitiful attempt to drive on the road for the first time. All the while, grouchy men are joking your driving skills (or lack thereof). And to add to this trauma, you have to pull into the school's front driveway at lunch. Your friends are watching. You try to remain cool as you lurch into the curb (Who put that there anyway?). But after the initial embarassment you finally get your license which means unlimited freedom. Life would be perfect now if mom and dad would buy you that red Porsche. Unfortunately, along with this freedom comes a few extras you hadn't bargained for, like young and very annoying friends who always want a ride and just never seem to have any gas money. Probably the greatest fear is the law. Getting that first speeding ticket is always a killer -- your first experience with car restriction. But there's no denying it, driving is one of the highlights of your high school years, and it sure beats catching a ride with mom and dad!

Worst Fears

Lions and tigers and bears, oh my! Strangely, it seems that every person has a cowardly streak that runs down their spine. Everyone has a worst fear that keeps them up at night. -C.J. FC reveals its worst fears: "Being folded up in a sofa bed!" - Catherine Nash "Flying over water" - Lauren Knispel "Getting smushed in a garbage truck" - Katie Zunich "The dark" - David Bussey "Failing the 11th grade" - Kim Reed "Becoming a squid" - Chris Henry "Sharks!" - Jennifer Morrison and Jeff Blaylock "Being pounded by a 20 foot wave" - Todd Rosenbaum "Chemistry!" - Michelle Serrano "Delivering my wife's baby, alone!!" - Mr. Williams "Waking up one morning and looking like Mr. Williams!" - Coach Britton

MANIC MONDAY

Without any forgiveness to its victim, the cruel alarm screams what seems like bloody murder. A slow and rude awakening comes about. Yes, the beginning of another Monday is at hand. Mondays, the day that every student dreads, slowly but painfully tosses itself on its victims. Those same burning questions arise again on what to wear, whether or not to take a shower, and is it really worth doing all those things just to go to school. Students reluctantly give in as they file into school with only their memories of the weekend to keep them going.

Arriving Monday morning, Tasheemah Rembert and Teryka James plan their upcoming week.

T.G.I.F.

The one day of the week that students actually do not mind going to school is that wonderful day called Friday. Unknowingly, Fridays appear with much needed energy to boost the livelihood of students. They file into FC to finish off the last day of another eventful week and start the beginning of a fresh, although very short, weekend away from school. The atmosphere is filled with a sense of harmony as the students ask each other, "What's going on tonight?" and the same thoughts run through everyone's mind,"only a few more bells!" Anticipation mounts steadily as seventh bell seems to drag forever until suddenly that familiar bell rings at 2:00. Students quickly file out of the school and rejoice with each other as the halls are wiped clean of any traces of student life. -S.C.

Yesterday...

The scholastic pressures of today are immense and never-ending. There is scarcely any room for failure, but always the need for improvement. Thoughts of homework, college applications, future careers, and extracurricular involvement fill the minds of most students. It seems that today's high school student has little time to be who he wants to be, think what he wants to think; little time to dream of better days gone by. Oh, to dream of a simpler time; it was only...yeaterday....

The days of yore were certainly less complicated, when we played in the streets with bicycles, tricycles, "Green Machines;" with virtually any thing that would roll. Every day seemed like a weekend, and no one knew of homework. The major topic of discussion was "Bugs Bunny," and the main activity was watching the clouds or catching brightly colored leaves. Not one of us had heard of college, and if we had, it seemed so distant and unreal. Our parents were always there to make our next decision, to plan our next activity, to patch our next cut or bruise. We were invariably left to ponder and to dream, to be a child, and to be ourselves; that is all we wanted to be.

Today it seems almost tragic that high school students have to be subjected to such rigidity and stress. Certainly the future will hold more than enough tribulations for many a lifetime. Dreaming of a simpler time may often get one out of the valleys, and headed toward the mountain top. Oh, just think of it. It was only...yesterday....

The First Class faculty and administration make coming to school each day easier and more interesting. The teachers, with their caring, understanding, and even occasional joking spirit, make everyday worthwhile. Their support not only in the classroom, but at sporting events and after-school activities, encourages the students in every endeavor. As Patriots spend more time with the First Colonial faculty, friendships develop. Teachers, by showing interest and Patriot pride, motivate Patriots to increase their knowledge and follow their dreams.

Although the teachers and administration are the most well-known part of the faculty, the behind-the-scenes staff members contribute quite a bit to the workings of the school. Bus drivers, custodians, hall monitors and cafeteria workers helped to keep First Colonial running in First Class shape. Our bus drivers carried students to and from school each day safely. The grounds and the halls were always kept neat and clean by our dedicated custodians. And the hallways were patrolled in perfect order by the newly instituted hall monitors. School lunches were efficiently served with a smile. In whatever job staff members worked, their efforts were appreciated by students.

"Not bad for an old man."
Mr. A.

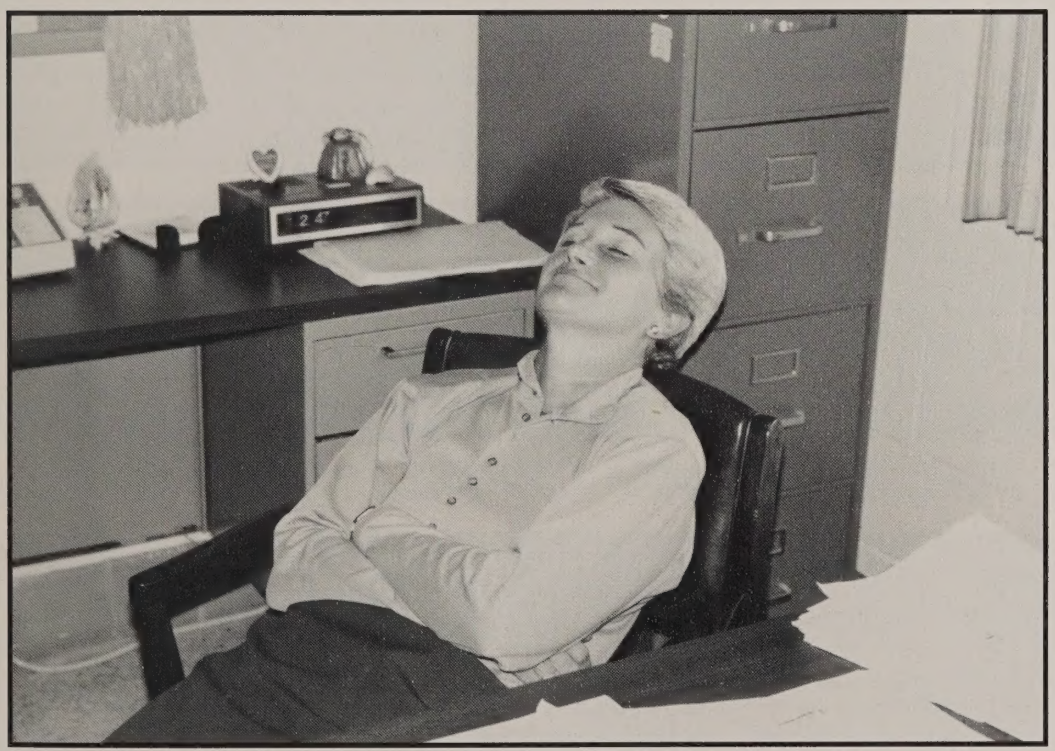
Mrs. Anthony dreams of a world without parking stickers.

How many Patriots does it take to run a successful, spirited, beach high school?...

Four: one principal and three principal assistants. To fill these positions we have principal Charles H. Atkinson and assistant principals Carol Anthony, Joanne Belda, and Dr. Richard Hanna.

In the changing teenage environment our principals helped provide stability. Everyone took for granted that Mr. Atkinson would be in the cafeteria every day being available for anyone's need. Ms. Anthony would stand in the cafeteria foyer each morning to greet students and keep things running smoothly, while Mrs. Belda would take care of things in the office and direct substitutes and students to their proper locations. Dr. Hanna on the other hand, would be waiting in his office to re-educate students about correct school policy when they veered from the patriot path to prosperity.

On the city-wide level, E. Carlton Boyer replaced Dr. James Melvin as Superintendent of schools. Students and faculty look forward to the beneficial changes Mr. Boyer will implement. We are lucky to have encouraging administrators that project the Patriot image of success. -S.N.



"I like being at First Colonial. It keeps me young."
Mrs. Belda

"I wish there was no such thing as parking at First Colonial." Mrs. Anthony.

Summer Fun!

As the year was coming to and end; many teachers waited for the summer, with even more anticipation than the students. After all the exams were graded and the classrooms were cleaned, so most of them headed out ecstatically knowing they would not have to return until August.

Over the summer, many teachers took the opportunity to travel on a vacation or simply to visit long distant relatives. Mrs. Haring cruised to Alaska, while Mrs. Schultz went to Louisiana to visit her brother and family. Where ever our faculty went, they were sure to take advantage of their time and spend it having fun!

Some of the faculty just spent their summer in Virginia Beach relaxing and enjoying the time off. Teenagers would refer to this in terms of "hanging out" or "bumming around." Some teachers took the chance to read some books that they actually did not have to teach. Others took the chance to have "fun in the sun at the beach."

Let us not forget those very brave teachers who spent their summer teaching the dreaded summer school. Some teachers became students! One such lucky individual, Mr. Roberts, took two graduate classes towards his masters degree in English and was also able to find time to manage a pool. -K.M.

Patriot Pets

When you think of your teacher having a pet, you might imagine a huge attack dog with steel teeth, foaming at the mouth. Just sneering at you, waiting for you to cross his path so he can tear you to pieces.

In fact you'd be suprised how many teachers have cute, furry lovable little creatures running around their house. Mr. Thompson has an eleven year old cocker spaniel named Heather who does tricks. She can do a high five for treats and is able to leap into tall trash cans in a single bound. Some of Heather's nicknames are Heathery, Brown Eyed Girl, Waggles, and the very appropriate,Trash Monster.

Mrs. Crayton has the most unusual story of loving her dog Ralph so much that she named her son after him!

Whether it is a dog, cat, or even an elephant, the Faculty members of First Colonial love their pets.

"Will the real Ralph please stand!

"Animals are the best companions man could ever ask for, they never ask why - they're just always there to give you love"

Mr. Thompson's dog Heather waits patiently for a treat after completing a "high five."

Excuses, Excuses!

Although it may be hard to believe, our famous excuses don't always work. Most teachers are able to see through the stories; yet, some students managed to get away with not doing their homework by using creative excuses. One student was quoted as giving this most unusual excuse, "I was on my way to school, and suddenly someone pointed a gun to my head and demanded that I hand over my homework. What could I do? I was going to fight back but he said he'd shoot me if I tried. As much as I hated to, I gave him my homework."

For the less imaginative students there were always the classic excuses, but be careful when using them--they don't always work.

"Honest Mr. Roberts, my dog really did eat it!"

"My mom made me clean my room and I accidentally threw it away."

"Someone broke into my house last night and the police confiscated my assignment for fingerprints."

"My locker partner took it because he didn't do it either."

"Honest-I did the assignment-I just did it with an invisible ink pen."

"It was so good my mom framed it."

"Homework, what homework? You never assigned any homework."

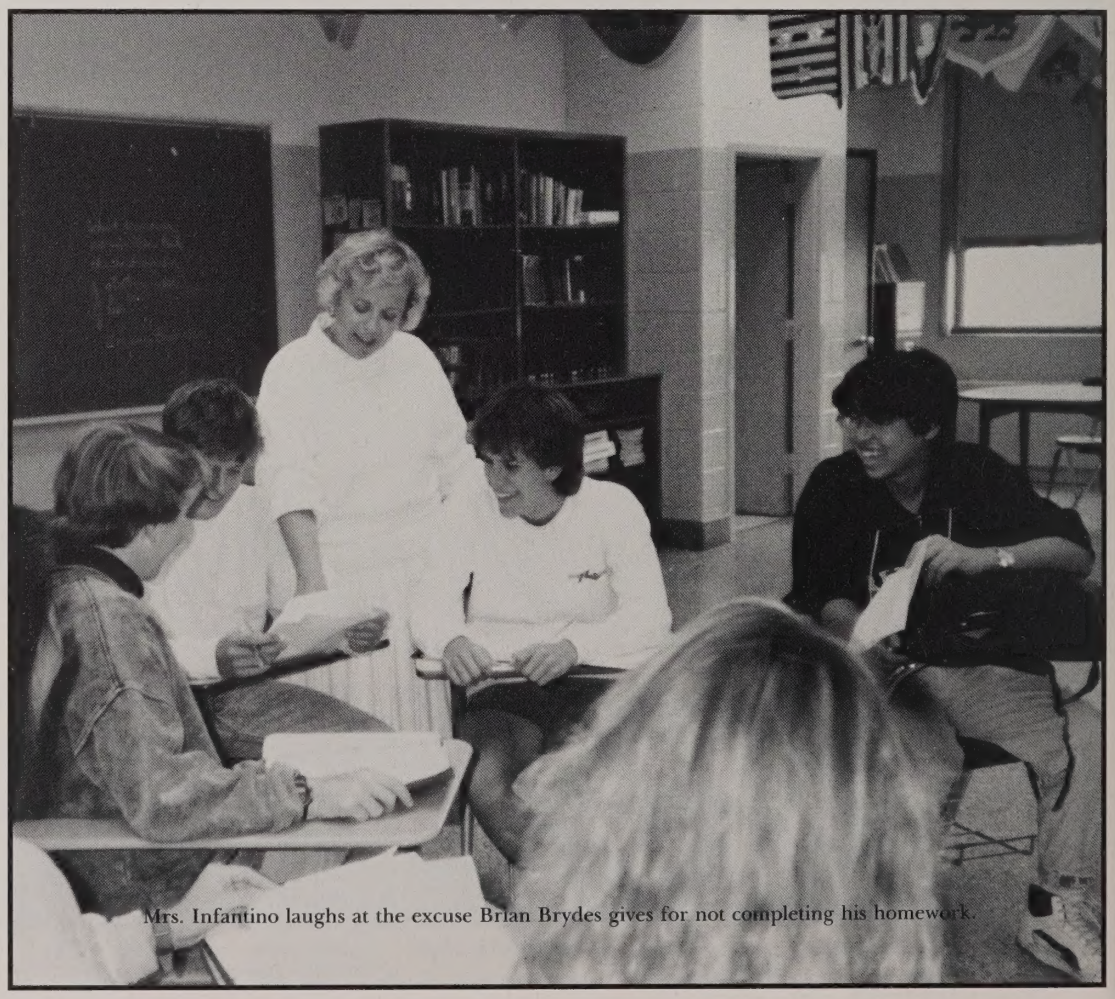
"It's in braille!"

"I ran into a bum on the street and I gave it to him to line his jacket."

"I spilled my chemistry experiment on it and the acid ate it."

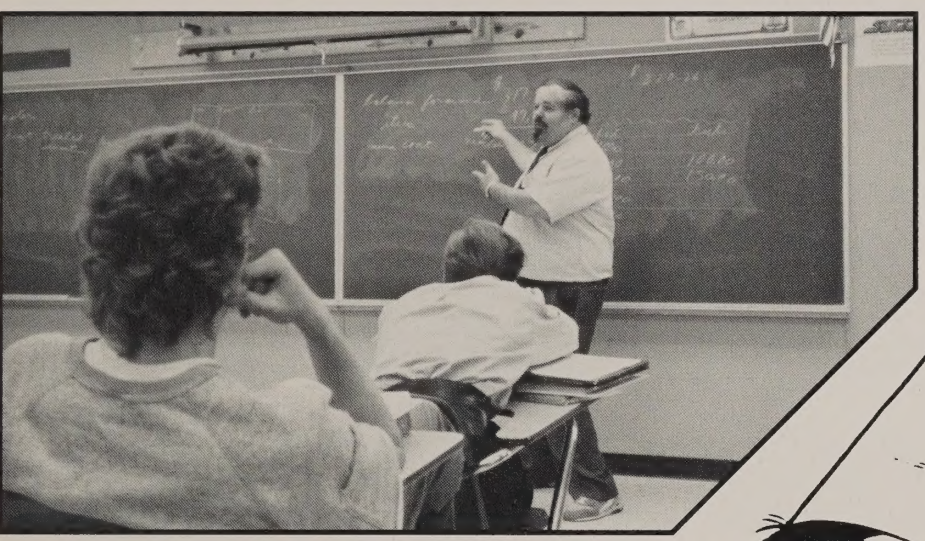
"Our heat went off and we had to burn it to keep warm."

All these excuses are worth a try, you might be surprised, they may actually work. However, it is in most students interest to do your homework, that way you don't have to "rack" your brain trying to come up with an exceptable excuse.



Mrs. Infantino laughs at the excuse Brian Brydes gives for not completing his homework.

Faculty members work hard listening to all the excuses students give for being late.



Mr. Gutberlet attempts to knock some sense into his students head.

Supportive

Most students had days during the year when they just didn't want to get up and go. For some a driving force was knowing that however they felt, the bus would always be coming. Day in and day out F.C. bus drivers were depended on by hundreds of students to get them to and from school safely.

Upon arrival at school students could always expect a clean classroom thanks to our great custodial staff.

Not to be forgotten were the cafeteria staff who fed over 2000 people each day.

Security guards Chief, Mr. Fifield, and Mr. Kee, made sure everyone was clear of the halls and on time to class throughout the year.

Together these were the people who kept the school operating. They are an important part of F.C., their work is not unnoticed or unappreciated.

Pins to Win!

SPORTS

When proud Patriots put all their strength and effort together and go out on the field, mats, court, or green, the result is a successful year in sports!

The athletes at First Colonial came forth to comprise First Class teams in every sport. From district championships to exciting, challenging games, the teams contributed to an outstanding year both in victories and in First Class spirit.The year started off with a bang! The football, field hockey, and girls' tennis teams had exciting winning seasons. Cross Country excelled and the enthusiasm from the cheerleaders was overwhelming! Later in the year, wrestling, basketball, gymnastics, and indoor track strived for seasons filled with top honors gained after lots of hard work and dedication. Towards the last part of the 1990 sport season, the soccer, track, baseball, softball, and guys' tennis teams triumphed in their respective sports.

Not only were the athletes impressive, but the wonderfully dedicated coaches at First Colonial gave the year their best shots! With such skilled guidance, the athletes improved and enjoyed the season.

The support of all the First Colonial fans, not to mention the talent of the individuals playing on the team, gave the 1989-90 sports season a First Class touch!

Back To The Bases

Although the rain put a damper on the Lady Patriots' softball season, their First Class spirit and attitude shone through. The team struggled through a difficult season. The 1989 Beach District was one of the toughest ever, with fierce competition from Princess Anne and Green Run. The team also faced the difficulty posed with only two returning starters and a predominantly inexperienced team.

The team was led by Keri Ringenbach at shortstop, named outstanding offensive and defensive player of the year. Returning at first base was Stephanie Newsome. Newcomers Tina Sawyer and Sheila Ridgway pitched for the Patriots. Michelle Besaw started at third base along with Jodi Evans at second. Chris Keith and Heather Bailey took turns playing catcher. In the outfield, Kristen Rosignolo played center and Lisa Lewis played left.

The girls were hard workers and complained little in spite of their unfortunate losses, seven of which they were one run shy of winning. Good luck to the First Class Lady Patriots in 1990!

Lovin' It

Eighteen of F.C.'s best male tennis players practiced everyday last spring to perfect what we all know as the Men's Tennis Team of 1989. They were absolutely outstanding. They worked together to defeat other schools and had a great time doing it.

Seniors Brian LaRoche, David Bunting, Brad Zwirschitz, Jeff Matton, and Mike Tsai worked hard to make their last season the best they could. They endured long practices and diffcult matches in order to lead us on to victory.

Underclassmen dedicated themselves to making F.C.'s tennis team fantastic; they made practices fun so they would look forward to returning next season on the team.

With an over-all record of 8-4 our team displayed a strong finish, we should be very proud of our tennis team!

Shoot To Score

Captains Mike Smith and Doug Denny work together to beat an opponent. Smith made the All District team and Denny received honorable mention.

Striving for excellence was the primary objective of the 1989 boy's soccer team. They finished second place in the beach district last spring with a 10-1-3 record. Leading forces on the dominating and skilled team included captains Mike Smith and Doug Denny. With inspiration of coach Thompson and assistant coach Wille Kee, the team players ruled the field.

The all district team included Chad Kline, Bill Tomiack, Mike Smith, and Trey Weis. Trey held the title of leading scorer with a total of 14 goals. Kline, the outstanding goalie, had a record of 55 saves and only 8 goals against him in all 12 matches.

The 1988-89 soccer team will be remembered for their winning strategies and efforts. As coach Thompson said, "Our team had a great attitude and I was really proud of them!"

Bill Tomiak heads the ball away from a defender. Tomiak made the All District team in '89.

Trey Weis swiftly shakes the ball away from his opponent. Weis also made the All District team.

Tim Oates, All District honorable mention recipient, prepares to dodge his opponent.

Winning Ladies

The 1989 Lady Patriot soccer team ended their season with First Class success. They won 12 of their 15 games, including the match against Cox which made them Beach District Champions. The team was also Regional runner-up.

The team was dominated by seniors. Four leading seniors were chosen as captains: Tricia Kinney, Melanie Pacella, Christy Richards and Lee Frost. The captains served as inspiration for the entire team and everyone's spirit was boosted by Tricia Kinney.

The 1990 season will be a defense rebuilding year due to the fact that the Lady Patriots graduated their entire defensive starting line. However the offensive line will be returning in full stride. In the 1989 season the girls collectively scored 47 goals with 43 assits. Meredith Barrett led the scoring with 15 goals, followed by Allison Smith with 12.

GOOD LUCK in the 1990 season!

Fast Forward

The men's cross country team had to do a little adjusting this year. Besides a new tougher course, the team saw changes in the form of new faces. Lance Lewis, David Nelson, Kevin Wells, Anthony Cox, Paul Sameit, and Mike Kelley were welcome additions.

The team got progressively stronger in each meet. Recognizing the need for conditioning early in the season, Coach Hill had the team run intervals ranging from 800 m to 1600 m on Mondays and Fridays, and at least one ten-mile run a week. The hard practices paid off in bug wins over Kellam and Green Run. At the UVA Invitational and at the William and Mary Invitational, many team members broke personal records. Led by team captain Bo Reed, the team took fourth place in the Beach District to qualify for Regionals and placed in the top ten.

All in all, it was a year of positive growth and performance.

Step By Step

This year's women's Cross Country team encountered a season of change. Aside from the loss of last year's graduating seniors, the team had a more challenging course to conquer. Most team members found the new course to be harder than last year's course. It did not take long for team members to adjust.

In the first meet of the season, the Norfolk Catholic Invitational, the team took third place. Led by Virginia Clarke, Sally Shults, and Sarah Daniels, the team beat Bayside, Green Run, and Salem in dual meets by a wide margin. Runners pulled together to win a difficult meet against Kellam's competitive team. At the UVA Invitational, the girls defeated the challenges of "Cardiac Hill" and "Bear Hill" to finish in fourth place. At the the William and Mary Invitational, many team members ran their personal best. They placed second in the Beach District and second in the region.

No Place Like Home

The 1989 baseball team put in a lot of hard work to make the year First Class. With a final record of seven wins and five losses, the Patriots proved that a relatively inexperienced team can have a successful season. Coach Norbie Wilson led the team to victory.

One major concern was the loss of the primary pitchers from the previous year, such as Mike Nosay and Jeff Ware. Nick and Frank Fortunato, along with Jeff Sweet, took over the position of pitcher. Senior Sean Carter played a variety of positons, including left field and first and third bases. Pete Lamore, a three year starter, played catcher while David Frost took second base. Another contributing senior, both in spirit and in the outfield, was Tim Berry.

With the boost from the new sophomores and returning juniors and seniors the Patriots are definitely in order for another First Class year!

Leading Ladies

The First Colonial cheerleaders led the school in pep and spirit during the 1989-1990 school year. Led by co-captains Gwen McDowell and Jennifer Jones, along with coaches Mrs. Anderson and Ms. Strickland, the Patriot cheerleaders provided much-needed encouragement and enthusiasm during the games.

The cheerleading practices started during the summer. Two representatives of the Elite Cheering Camp traveled to FC to help the girls improve their technique and to teach them a few new cheers, sucn as a new variation of the Bat dance.

The cheerleaders definitely portrayed the First Class image that our school tries hard to maintain. The squad urged the teams on to victory, comforted the teams when they lost, and supported intraschool spirit. Thanks for a truly exciting year!

Fighting Patriots

For the Patriots, the 1989 season was one of many ups and downs. Noted for its high powered and explosive offense, the FC football team outscored opponents 253 to 105 in the first seven games alone. Then the team defeated Salem 35-6 to clinch the Beach District Championship title.

But that all quickly deteriorated when FC had to forfeit its first three games, as did four other Beach District teams. When we met Green Run, both teams had perfect records on the field but were marred by forfeits. The meeting, dubbed "The People's Championship", saw the two Beach Powerhouses clash on the Stallion's home field. When the battle was finally over, only the mighty Patriots wore proud smiles of victory!

The next week, FC lost to Maury and all seemed lost. However, thanks to many parents' hard work and FC football supporters, the forfeits were overturned by the VHSL, returning the Beach District crown to FC and a place in the Regional Playoffs.

In the first round of regional play an angry and vengeful Patriot defense posted its first shut out against Maury, as F.C. avenged its only loss of the season. Then it was on to Darling Stadium in Hampton. Again the Patriot defense was unrelenting, and the Patriots gained a 9-7 hard fought victory in front of a stunned Hampton crowd! The win over the Crabbers was the first by any Beach team since 1971!

The fighting Patriots' streak stalled in the State Semi-final game against West Potomac who won 21-7 and went on to win State. The Patriots dominated the All-Beach District squad and several players were also selected for all Tidewater; two recieved All-State honors.

The 1989 Patriots football team demonstrated the resilience, determination, and hard work that is characteristic of the school as a whole. JT

Hockey Heroines

After two grueling weeks in the blazing August sun, the Field Hockey team was finally chosen. For the lucky few, summer camps and miles of running had paid off. From the highly skilled competition, second-year coach Traci Strickland picked one of the best hockey teams in FC history; for the first time the Lady Patriots were the Co-District Champions! The team, largely made up of Seniors, had experience, talent, and desire, along with great leadership from captains Shelly Doolittle and Missy Moran. FC placed Missy Moran on the All-District first team, Ashley Blackman and Jennifer Morrison on the second team, and Megan Merklinger and Meredith Barrett earned honorable mentions. Just Do It

As the 1989-90 girls' tennis season came to a close, it became more and more obvious that the First Colonial team was out to win -- nothing less. And they did. FC represented the Eastern Region at the state championship, took third place. This was the only time they lost a match; their final record was 13-1.

Through the past decade, the First Colonial girls' tennis team dominated the Beach district, with seven district titles and two second place titles. They also dominated the Eastern Region with six regional titles. In 1982, the team won the state championships; in 1986, it was second in the state.

One of the most prominent players of the First Colonial girls' tennis team was Julie Shiflet. In 1986, she was the state champion in singles. She shared the doubles' state champion title in 1986 with her sister Laura. In 1987, she was the runner-up for the singles' state champion title. In 1989, she again became the state champion. Everytime she played, she left her spectators in awe with her power and her ability to wipe out her opponents in a matter of minutes.

The 1980's decade was an outstanding one for the First Colonial girls' tennis team!

Prize Putting

The 1989-90 First Colonial golf team ended the season with a successful fourth place ranking in the Beach district. All the hard work and dedication put in by the team is commendable. The outstanding record of eight wins, one loss and one tie proves that the First Colonial golf team is First Class!

Number one seed Adam Martin was a medalist in most of the matches, with number two seed Brian Liebler close behind, winning two medals by himself. Number three seed Dennis Schumacher medaled once alone and tied for medalist twice. Schumacher and number four seed Denny Kamencik played consistently throughout the season, scoring in the mid 70's to the low 80's. Their playing was a great asset to the team. Newcomers Danny Williams and Brian Freidburg anchored the team, playing number five and six respectively. Tommy Myers and Mike Nichols contributed to the team effort.

The golf team placed fourth in the Wintergreen Invitational and took the top honors in the First Colonial Invitational against nine other Virginia high school teams. Congratulations to Brian Liebler who moved on to the Regional Tournament at Cypress Point Country Club.

At The Hoop

The First Colonial Patriots boys' basketball team completed yet another successful year with a 15-6 overall regular season record. Their 10-4 district record was good enough for a third place finish. The team was led by senior co-captains Kenny Jones and Tyrone Lancaster. Jones, a nifty ballhandler, and Lancaster, the team's leading scorer and a slashing penetrator, were the glue that held the Patriots together. Balance, though, was the key to the team's success. Carl Thoroughgood, Gary Brockett, and Chris Young contributed heavily on the inside, and Neil Ziemba and Bobby Oliver were steady performers at the guard slots. The coaching styles of L. Anthony and M. Williams contributed greatly to the team's success. Other players who were instrumental in the Patriots' success were Arthur Stevenson, Sean Etheridge, Denny Kamencik, and crowd favorite, John Buser. Overall, the 1989-90 basketball season was another FC success.

On The Ball

The 1989-90 Lady Patriot Basketball Team finished their season with a record of 15-5 overall and 11-4 in the district. A great deal of hard work and dedication paid off as was seen in their winning season. Coach Copeland lived by the rules of teamwork and discipline and with the help of Assistant Coach Temple, she established these ideas in their team.

The Lady Patriots had a lot of individual talent. Nine of the players were returnees from last year, six of them seniors. Senior co-captains Stephanie Newsome and Veronica Luck, provided team spirit as well as leadership both on and off the court. Newsome was a strong three-point shooter as well as an extremely talented point guard. Luck led the team in rebounding and was also a great versatile player. Juniors Nicole Starnes and Tonia Haggard were quite strong post position players. Each had the talent of a short-range jump shot as well as quick moves underneath the basket. Seniors Viveca Tripp and Julie Nestor were both strong guards with beautiful jump shots from outside the key and strong defensive talent to make the opposing teams quite nervous. Senior Kristen Rosignolio had a nice outside shot and gathered for many rebounds each game. Julie Cruit, Andrea Dambekaln, and Dee Smith, all playing the guard position, were tough players with a lot of talent, especially in shooting. Andrea DeJesus, Libby Ross, Ashleigh Hill, and Tara Palmgnist were all strong post position players and great rebounders.

Congratulations Lady Patriots on your winning season and for continuing FC's tradition of Patriot Pride!

The Final Pin

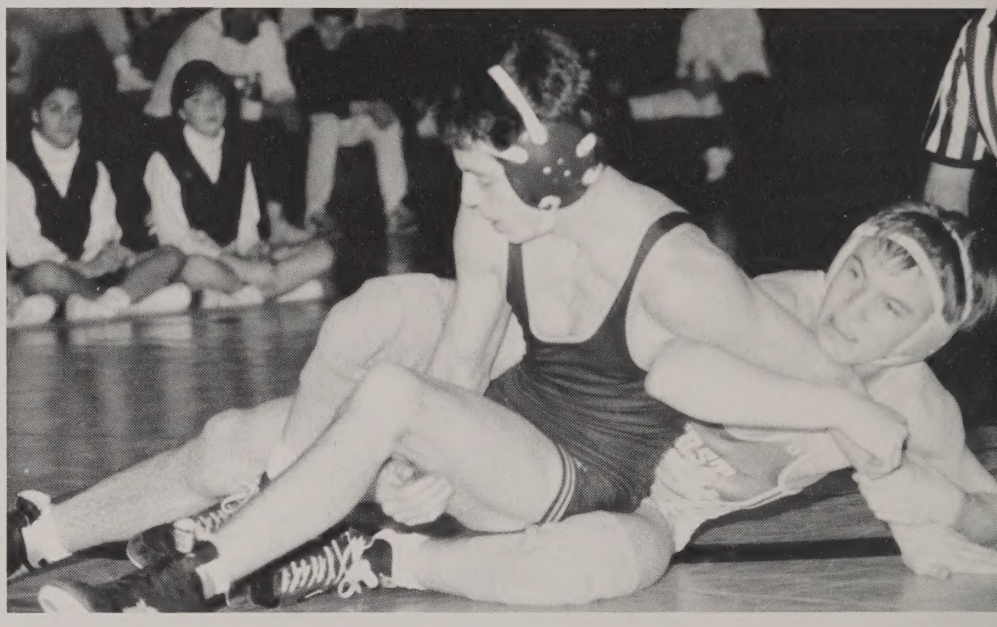
The 1989-90 wrestling team, despite its rebuilding status, finished the season with a record of 9-5. The wrestling Patriots included one district champion, five regional qualifiers, and one state qualifier.

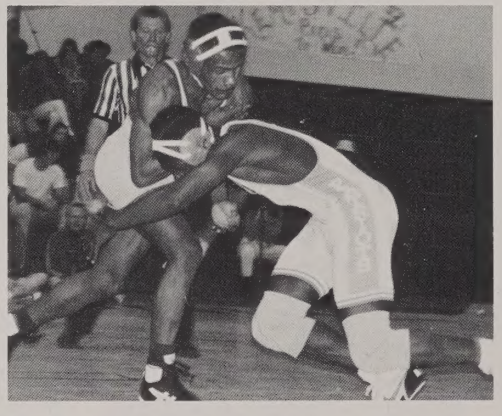
The Patriots were led by Coach Bothel. It was felt by all that he was a great coach even though sometimes practices were tough. Chris Runzo held the position of assistant coach, who proved very valuable to the team when Coach Bothel became a father in December. Runzo had coached wrestling in Roanoke, VA in the past. This year was his first year with the Patriots.

The wrestling team was deemed a young one. With only three seniors, Fred Franks, Dan Sameit, and Curtis Goettel, it is obvious what the future holds for the Patriots. Junior Denny Hedspeth was considered quite a contribution to the team, with an eagerness to win. In the years to come, continued success can be expected from the team as the relationships and the bodies both become stronger.

Congratulations to the First Colonial Wrestling team for their hard work determination this season.

Senior Dan Sameit struggles to slam his opponent to the mat.





Wallace Daniels prepares for a take-down.

Brian Brydges attempts to roll over his man.

Tumbling Patriots

The 1989-1990 First Colonial gymnastic team was one of the best ever. For the first time in over ten years, the Patriots captured a tri-city champion title.

The team exhibited talent that extended throughout the four events. Coached by Mrs. Christi Anderson, top all-arounds were Sarah Daniels, Page Atkinson, and Dana Gectzi, and specializing in one or more events were Jennifer Jones and Shannon Frost. The whole team contributed to the success of the season.

Sophomore, Dana Gectzi, captured the hearts of the judges and several personal victories. She placed second in the all-around competition at the district meet, first at the regional meet, and third at the state meet, which took place at Woodbridge High.

The leadership of co-captains Heather Bailey and Page Atkinson helped to keep the team's morale high and encouraged fun and spirit throughout the season. The team is predicted to continue its success next season, even with the loss of its seniors.

Special thanks to managers Jenny, Heather, and especially Charles, who also photographed the gymnasts.

All and all the championship was obtained by a strong team effort. The pride of all the gymnast was shown through first class performance throughout the season.

Many members of the gymnastics team made lasting friendships

Junior Shannon Frost executes a beautiful straddle over the low bar.

Frozen Toes

Just like the letter carrier, the 1989-90 First Colonial indoor track teams practiced through rain, sleet, and snow. Team members and spectators were often seen bundled in blankets and hopping around in an attempt to keep warm at indoor track meets.

The women's team finished with a winning season of 5-2 overall. The team produced district champions Caryn Carson, Petrina Gibbs, Ellen Kirby, Lisa Hudson, and Cherie Soloman. State qualifiers for the team were Caryn Carson, Virginia Clarke, Chrissy Braham, and Barbara Fallon.

However, the men's track team was plagued by injury and illness - both which, according to Coach Kaminski, hindered the team's progress. A number of men's team members qualified for the state meet: Bob Efird, Bo Reed, and Mac Davis. Efird went on to take fifth place in the triple jump at the state meet. Another highlight of the season was the new record Bo Reed set in the 1000m run.

Through it all, the team kept a positive attitude. Congratulations and Good Luck next season.

Bo Reed, Mike Kelley and Lance Lewis compete in the 1000m run.

Dust In The Wind

The 1988-1989 outdoor track season was a season of successes for the men's and ladies' teams.

Led by Jennifer Johnson, Veronica Luck, Vivieca Tripp, and Nicole Starnes, the women's outdoor track team achieved an overall record of 5-1. The team's only loss in the regular season was to the eventual district, regional, and state champions- Green Run. A number of team members went on to the state meet: Veronica Luck, Viveca Tripp, Barbara Fallon, Sarah Daniels, and Chrissy Braham.

The men's team was led by Pete Miles, Bob Efird, Bo Reid, Chuck Clements, and Eric Burton. At the Con Madden relays, a number of team members received medals. Team members who qualified for the state meet were: Pete Miles, Bob Efird, Bo Reed, Eric Burton, Chuck Clements, Dion Johnson, Jaton Hines, and Rodney Miller. The team as a whole took 3rd place in the district.

Congratulations to both teams for their First Class performances and their oustanding efforts. Good Luck next season.

CLUBS

Tick tock, tick tock...As the clock nears the two o'clock mark, First Colonial patriots prepare to rush out of seventh bell. However, home is not always the destination; many students stay after school for various club meetings. First Colonial offers numerous clubs of every kind from academic to service to just plain fun.

Academic clubs offer Patriots a chance to distinguish themselves and to further their appreciation and knowledge of a subject, such as a foreign language. These organizations can also help to gear students for making career choices.

Service clubs encompass a wide range. Many academic clubs, such as the National Honor Society, also have a service area. Some clubs, however, are completely dedicated to service. The Happy Club specializes in raising money and awareness for Operation Smile, whereas the Key Club interacts in and out of school with projects of all kinds. Whatever the area of service, these clubs contribute to both First Colonial and the community.

Social clubs offer students a chance to further their interest in something such as Star Trek or Black Culture. Patriots can enjoy learning about a favorite area wtih others who share similar ideas and interests.

All in all, First Colonial clubs offer a chance to meet other students who share a similar interest in a subject, such as science or in benefitting society, such as Amnesty International, or just enjoying an activity, such as the Industrial Arts.

This year Mrs. Vester and Mr. Hudson sponsored the S.C.A. Officers were: Pres., John Dinsmore; V.P., Wendy Cohen; Sec., Brad Flint; Tres., Todd Wehmann; Second V.P., Jamie Frantz; Parlimentarian, Tammy Kelsey; and ICC coordinator Alison Berger.

The S.C.A. started in the summer when they all went to a leadership workshop. They brought their leadership skills back to F.C. and ran their own very successful leadership workshop.

In the fall the S.C.A. ran the annual homecoming events, organizing the parade during the football game and the dance the following night.

They also ran class elections, sold F.C. T-shirts, raised money for the United Way, and sponsored the can food drive.

Thanks to the S.C.A., the school year ran smoothly and efficiently. THANKS SCA! - P.A.

Young Lifin' it!

First Colonial students escape to Young Life every Wednesday.

Do you get the middle of the week blahs? Well, Young Life's the answer. Every Wednesday night, fifty to one hundred Patriots get together for hours of singing and laughing that always cures the homework blues.

Every year Young Life provides fun and exciting activities outside of the weekly gathering. There's the Young Life field day where school's from all over the beach compete in a variety of events. Last summer several F.C. students traveled to Colorado to a Young Life camp where they took part in many fun activities.

This year Young Life was led by Scott and Michelle Hamilton, Rob Golden, and Kelly Lamb. This crew kept spirits high which made it a great year for everyone. - P.A.

The FCHS Brain Trust

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, one of First Colonial's most prestigious organizations, chose its members for their strong characteristics of leadership, citizenship, service, and character. All sixty-two members exhibited these fine qualities as they strove toward a goal of serving others, both fellow patriots and the community. Under the leadership of Jamie Frantz, President; Vasili Simmons, Vice-President; Shelley Doolittle, Secretary; Wayne Shackelford, Treasurer; and Ms. Dell Young, Advisor, the Honor Society remained active from September to June.

Members worked to benefit the school through many activities. They started the year by weeding the beds in front of the school to make F.C. look its best. Each morning from 7:15 to 7:30, members could be found in the bookstore located by the auditorium to supply students with forgotten pens, paper, and report covers to name a few. In the fall, NHS sold stationery, and in the spring, Valentine carnations. The Honor Society continued the tradition of tutoring students who asked for help.

NHS members gave their time each week to help the community. By working after school in the Central Library Friendshop. In March, NHS sponsored an American Red Cross blood drive. During the Christmas season, NHS adopted a needy family and provided them with food, clothing, and an abundance of gifts. The Honor Society benefitted many in the school and the community this year.

Our organization is sponsored by Ms. Drummond, Dr. Pierson, and Ms. Lanze and is led by President Wendy Abernathy, Vice president Michelle Dudley, Treasurer Brian Beaudion, and Secretary Mary Johnson.

We are in our first year at F.C. and we've put across many messages and posters to say, "Don't drink and drive." We gave out "Contracts for Life" and participated in Red Ribbon Week, during which we distributed 1700 red ribbons to Patriots. We plan to sell S.A.D.D. key chains and sponsor a non-alcoholic end of the year/graduation party. We would like to thank you for your support and don't forget: PLEASE DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE!

Quality Service

The Key Club is an organization dedicated to serving the school and the community. The students of this club spend much of their time devoted to activities and projects. One such project was the blood drive, which has become an annual event. Through their hard work and under the leadership of Erich VonGehr, president; Brian Neely and Victoria Hughes, vice-presidents; Janet Bischof,secretary; and Dawn Lynn, treasurer, the club raised much money for several worthwhile causes.

The Interact Club is a service organization designated to encourage international understanding. Some of the projects the Interact Club participated in were selling bumper stickers to raise money and adopting a family for Thanksgiving. Attending the Interact conference in April was one of the trips taken by the club. In March, the Interact Club was involved with the Shamrock Marathon, an annual marathon at the beach. At checkpoint stations, club members gave the runners directions and cheered them up as they ran.

The Interact Club sponsored by the Virginia Beach Rotary Club was led by Charnelle Brosius, president; Josh Donlan, vice-president; Melissa Moran, secretary; and Elizabeth Sherwood, treasurer.

S.P.E.A.R. (Student Preservation of Environment and Animal Rights) is an organization which began many years ago due to a widespread interest in the environment. It was started this year at F.C. by Mrs. Nice who has been working consistantly for many years to help preserve animal and environment rights.

This club does everything form writing letters of urgent complaints to companies that exploit, to raising consumer awareness and offering alternate solutions to problems.

S.P.E.A.R. is more than a club; it is a life-long fight with a strong committment by each member to conquer the odds and work for the protection of animal rights. Everyone must realize that our environment and our animals will not be with us much longer unlesss we each take an active part in preservation. -E.K.

Many of the students at F.C. were involved in clubs. Whether it was the Happy Club or the FBLA, everyone belonged to a club which suited their personality. All of the clubs at F.C. participated in one big organization, the Inter Club Council. One participant came from each club as a representative. If an organization wanted to do a project or activity, it had to present its idea to the I.C.C. for approval.

Welcoming new clubs to F.C. is another duty of the Council. A constitution is required to be written by each new organization. The I.C.C. then gives the club a charter after it agrees to abide by the charter's rules.

Present officers are Matt Baum, President; Nicole Starnes, Vice-President; Emily Locke, Secretary; and Clay Everett, Treasurer.

The Latin Club is a member of the American Classical League and the Virginia Junior Classical League, and participates every year in the competitions that accompany the League's conference. This year, Matt Baum, Emily Locke, Jennifer Roberts, and Elizabeth Olsen won prizes.

We also enter the Forensics competition in the Foreign Language Festival and our students have always done well in this. We have also entered the Olympic Games for Virginia Beach Latin Students and have won three of the four times we competed. Last year we hosted the competition.

Membership is open to current Latin students with a genuine interest in the Classics.

Talk'n it up

Debate and Forensics

Quick! Name one of First Colonial's most successful teams. Football? Soccer? Both of these answers are correct, but perhaps one of the top contenders for this title does not even cross our minds: forensics and debate. Year after year, the pinnacle of public speaking has resided right here at F.C. From prose to extemp, forensics and debate have brought home the gold from up and down the East coast; Washington D.C., Atlanta, and Ft. Lauderdale are several sites where F.C. students reached speaking summits. Top debaters Jon Finn, Andrew Harding, and Aylia McCauseland along with debate captian Todd Wehmann conquered competition with ruthless rebuttals. While forensic team members, under the leadership of Jessica Newill, Greg Svede, Heather Allen, and Laura Tetlow continually bring home destrict, regional, and state awards. Some major contributors to these efforts can not go unnoticed: Wayne Shackelford, Pam Mason, Nicole Themides, Amber Silvers, and many more. Feeling a little overwhelmed by all these accomplishments ? Allow us to reiterate.....

Town Crier

The first issue of the Towne Crier sold out in 15 minutes last October. And that was after they ordered more copies than ever before! The student newspaper was redesigned this year. One of the most popular columns was "My Turn" where a student or teacher could sound off about an issue or concern. The Towne Crier is produced by the Journalism I and II students under the direction of Mrs. Jane Sobie. Senior Shaye Siegel was the editor-in-chief for this year's newspaper after serving as features editor last year.

Beautiful singing is one of the many talents of students under the direction of Mrs. Wendy Bone. Will Jennings was selected for Honors Choir. Fourteen choral students were selected for District Chorus, with Will Jennings and Aimee Herring earning the top scores in the district!

The Choral Department is composed of Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir, and Madrigal Singers. All performed in a fall, winter, and spring concert. Madrigal singers competed at FESTIVAL in the showchoir division winning first place and Grand Champions for their first-rate performance of "Cats" (spring 1989).

With all the preparation for concerts and competitions, much time and effort was expected of each student. Without the cooperation and full dedication these students gave, the First Colonial choir would not have been at its best. By being a part of this organization, these young performers showed their love for singing and their pride in representing our school.

All The World's A Stage

Dedication to the theater is the common bond among members of the Thespian Troupe and Drama Club. The Thespians' annual spring initiation week serves to reinforce this common bond.

Eligibility for initiation includes earning ten points (equaling one hundred hours of work) from working with various plays and conferences throughout the school year, and a sincere dedication to theater and the troupe. For one week, chosen plebes (initiates) must wear yellow and blue beanies and obey all orders given to them by all thespians. Survivors of Plebe Week are then inducted into the International Thespian Society and awarded the privileges of membership, one of which is eating in the theater.

Thespian Troupe 3178, sponsored by Nancy Curtis, is led by the Executive Cast and the Honour Council. Plays performed by the department this year were "Mousetrap", "A Christmas Carol", "Fortress", "The Wizard of Oz", and "You Can't Take It With You".

The Drama Club this year helped with shows and made their own club T-shirts. The Drama Club is led by co-presidents and membership is open to anyone. They went on a field trip to Richmond this year to see "Sweeney Todd" and had an amateur night production in the fall.

The Beat of a Different Drum

The First Colonial High School Marching Band in 1989 had their most successful marching season. Under the direction of Lou Tarabick, the band received a superior rating at the Garner North Carolina Marching Band Class along with a second place overall finish. The band won individual awards for general effect, marching and maneuvering, percussion, color guard, and music. This year's band placed third in the Neptune Parade and the color guard won second place in the Trucker Classic. The band participated in the James Madison University Parade of Champions as well as the Veteran's Day Parade. Under the leadership of the drum majors, Charles Overman and Cheri Solomon, and flag captains, Lee Ann Levin and Shaye Siegel, the band participated as a whole.

Fourteen members of the concert band made Regional Band. These members are Michelle Guzzardo, Katrina Harris, Holly Cottle, Edward Gray, Lee Ann Levin, Krystal Singleton, Jennifer Newburn, Brian Turmelle, Charles Overman, Cameron Dinunzio, Joshua Pyle, Brett Wiersma, Charles Everhart, and David Popkin. The band also looks forward to the District Festival and the annual spring trip.

One of the reasons for the band's great success this year is the dedicated leadership of its seniors.

Yearbook

This year, was an exciting time for First Colonial's Yearbook Staff. For much of the staff, it was the first time they had worked with the yearbook. It was even a new adventure for the sponsors, Mrs. Bone and Mrs. Finn.

Some of the staff members attended workshops over the summer to expand their knowledge of what goes into producing the book.

Throughout the year, the staff has put forth its best effort to make the Heritage a big success. Staffers spent an abundance of their time drawing layouts, writing copy, cropping pictures, and pigging out in the yearbook office, and frantically running around to get last minute things done before a deadline. While staying up all night to meet a deadline, the staff had a fun time making these extra special memories for their school. Thanks to the dedication and leadership of the editors of the Heritage, Catherine Joynt and Mindy Cloyes, the staff accomplished this major project.

Helping Hands

Octagon Club

The Octagon Club is a service oriented club which raised over $1,000 this year for the benefit of businesses damaged during the 1989 Greekfest. Hoping to raise spirits and enthusiasm at the football games was accomplished by painting faces for a small fee. Officers: Pres., A. Dunbar, V. Pres., G. Groff, Sec., M. Manning, Treas., M. Garfinkel and Project Chairman, H. Chrystomou.

Row 1: A. Dunbar, G. Groff, M. Manning, M. Garfinkel, H. Chrystomou, G. Wooten, T. Weis. Row 2: M. Wood, M. Johnson, M. Ballet, A. Blackman, M. Moran, J. Bataglia. Row 3: R. Levinson, A. Tomie, M. Perry, E. Sherwood, T. Boyce, H. Smith, K. Canaday, R. Anderson. Row 5: J. Dunlan, G. Bowman, B. Silverman, R. Hagarman, D. Armstead, J. Brown, E. Blank, J. Renner, W. Cohn, C. Joynt, T. Johnson, J. Riddick, R. Kash.

Happy Club

Organizing help and providing aid to the African community has been one of the main concerns of the Happy Club. Making young people aware of community involvement and improvement is another objective. The club also plans to sponsor a young man, so he will be able to continue his education after surgery is granted by Operation Smile.

Amnesty International is devoted to securing human rights all over the world. Under the leadership of Mrs. Daugherty, the F.C. chapter usually meets twice a month to respond to the Urgent Action appeals from Amnesty International. They write letters to government officials on behalf of prisoners of conscience or other political prisoners whose lives are in danger.

The club also tries to inform our student body of violations of human rights no matter where they occur, and to stress the need for individual action to secure human rights worldwide.

Odyssey of the Mind

Row 1: A. McClausland. Row 2: J. Bledsoe, J. Jensen, T. Goodwin, Mr. McClausland.

The Odyssey of the Mind chooses a task to perform in competition. The team then meets several times to devise the most creative way to perform the task. This year's task, under the direction of Mr. McCausland, included creating an artificial character that could laugh, frown,and cry. This character then had to be included in a comedy skit.

Odyssey team members are looking forward to competing and holding the title of Regional Champions.

Fighting Patriots

The Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (NJROTC) is proud to announce its 18th year of being hosted by First Colonial High School. NJROTC primary goals are to enhance leadership skills, promote self-discipline, and foster student awareness of the responsibilities associated with becoming a positive influence in our society. The cadets view themselves as being the mainstay of the "Patriot Spirit" here at First Colonial High School. Cadets acquire this knowledge through traditional classroom instruction, military drill labs, and the student supervisory structure.

Intensive military style and advanced leadership training is afforded platoon commanders and company staff officers. Specific training includes one week at the United States Naval Academy, one week at Orlando, Florida, or Great Lakes, Illinois, and two weeks at Newport, Rhode Island.

NJROTC is also characterized as a "club." As such, cadet company officers join other "class" officers during their annual one week leadership training at Virginia Weslyan College.

The cadet educational experience is reinforced with numerous extracurricular activities. Tours to air squadrons and submarines, at-sea-cruises, damage control training, community parades, and school athletic events. The cadets compete at local, state, and national levels in military drill meets and academic competitions.

Social events in the NJROTC Unit include holiday celebrations and the premier Annual Virginia Beach Battalion Military Ball. The end-of-year feature event consists of an orientation visit to the Pentagon and other historical sights on the Washington, D.C. area.

The NJROTC cadets continue to play an important role in the accomplishment of the "Fighting Patriots" pursuit of educational excellence.

D.E.C.A.

The First Colonial High School Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (D.E.C.A.) is a co-curricular organization with activities designed to enhance Marketing Education and Fashion Merchandising curriculums. The club is sponsored by the three marketing coordinators at F.C. — Mr. Brown, Mrs. Karanglen, and Mrs. Rhodes. The officers are: Pres. Karen Gay; V.P. Kristen Dowdell; Sec. Kelly Stokes; Tres. Lisa Weiler; Reporter/photographer Christi Reynolds; Parl./Chaplin Zabrina Hoggard. The officers attended the city wide Leadership Conference at Salem High.

The club members also participated in monthly city wide meetings, and also had an opportunity in October to spend a day at Busch Gardens learning about the marketing concept of the park as well as enjoying the rides and attractions.

D.E.C.A. annually provides "Halloween Treats" for the faculty and donates canned foods at Thanksgiving and Christmas to those in need.

D.E.C.A. completed a busy year with success.

One of the newest and most enthusiatic clubs at F.C. is the Science Club which plays an active roll in supporting a variety of ecological groups and activities both locally and internationally.

This year, members of the Science Club, led by President, Dana Miller; Vice-President, Eric VonGehr; Secretary, Andrea Towne; and Treasurer, Kevin Wells participated in several dune grass plantings and Bay clean-up projects. Sponsored by Biology teacher Lois Taliferro, the club sold Save Earth T-shirts and donated profits toward planting trees at First Colonial and saving rainforests.

Trips to the National Zoo and Smithsonian Complex in Washington, D.C. were much appreciated enrichment activities for students.

Star Trek Club

ack Row: B. Andrewski, K. Jensen, Cleaper, J. Bledsoe. Second Row: H. Warren, J. Cambell, S. Melrose. Front: Ir. McCausland.

First Colonial's one and only science fiction fan club, also unofficially known as the Trekies Guild, is commanded by captain James Bledsoe, First officer Brian Andrewski, and Chief of Engineering Scott Melrose, and assisted by the crew and sponser, Mr. McCausland.

The Star-Trek Clubs' activities often include role-playing games, reviewing good science fiction stories, books, and movies, as well as attending science fiction conventions and meeting with other science fiction clubs such as the U.S.S. Mart and the I.K.V. (Imperial Klingon Vessel) DEVASTOR. - S.M.

Creative Thinking

Art Honor Society

Chapter no. 870 of the First Colonial H.S. National Art Honor Society began the year 1989-90 with the election of the following officers: President, Chris Humes; Vice-President, Wes Sykes; Secretary, Coley Grimstead; Treasurer, Mary Ritchie; I.C.C. representative, Lisa Rostron; and Historian, Jennifer Riddick. Ms. K. Lanze is the club's sponsor.

Members have been actively involved in the following year activities: painting Salem H.S. pennants and Patriot Pride/ Patriot logo for the gym wall; participation in the Neptune Festival Art Show in the fall/winter of '89 and the Cultural Arts, Gallery '90, and Lynnhaven Mall art shows in 1990. Fundraisers included a T-shirt and poster sale.

Model United Nations

Model United Nations Society, in keeping with the the UN, wishes "...To save succeeding generations from the scourge of war which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind..." -UN Charter.

After months of preparation in the fall and winter, the Model UN delegates attended a conference at Virginia Wesleyan College in January and a larger conference sponsored by Old Dominion University at the Omni Hotel in Norfolk. Countries they represented at Va. Wesleyan: U.S.S.R.; Finland; Ethiopia; and Thailand. At ODU: Algeria; Loas; and Norway on the International Court of Justice.

Enthusiastically guided by Georgeanne Hribar and Head Delegate, Tatiana Graf and delegates researched topics such as drug trafficking, arms trade, overpopulation, pollution, and others, sure to be hot topics at the conferences.

The Steadfast, The Spirited

Young Republicans

The Pep Club is a school service organization designed to generate emotional support at school athletic events. Putting up banners with the cheerleaders or selling school support items, such as hats, pom poms, mugs, and seats help the Pep Club achieve its goal of promoting school spirit at First Colonial.

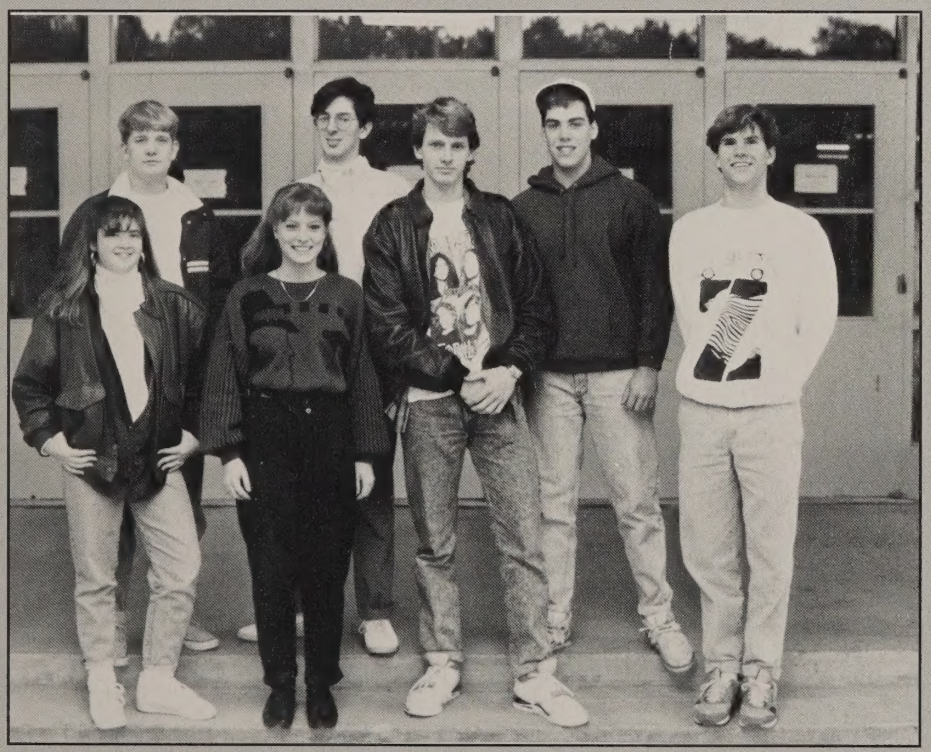
Pep Club



We have all heard the old cliché, "Different strokes for different folks." This holds true for students at F.C.; most students would like to be at the beach, but Young Republicans was created specifically for students who wished to enrich their high school years with party politics, individual thought, and discussion.

Under the inspirational guidance of Mrs. Crommelin, the Young Republicans dedicated hours to campaigns of republicans on the national level. The club distributed literature and attended state conferences. The students benefitted from their involvement in our political system and gained a better knowledge of Republican ideology. -A.H.

Dan Losh II T.R.D.! - 3/15/89
You've given me wonderful memories
Throughout my high school years,
All of them good
Which I cherish in my heart
Even when I've shed a few tears.
You're my hand to hold
My shoulder to cry on
The eyes through which I see
CONGRATULATIONS on GRADUATING
And remember how it will always be.
Together forever both you and me.
I love you the most.
Always,
Tanya B.P.R.!

We have been together since the 8th grade. I will miss you very much. Rest assured you will always be in my thoughts.

Vaya Con Dios.

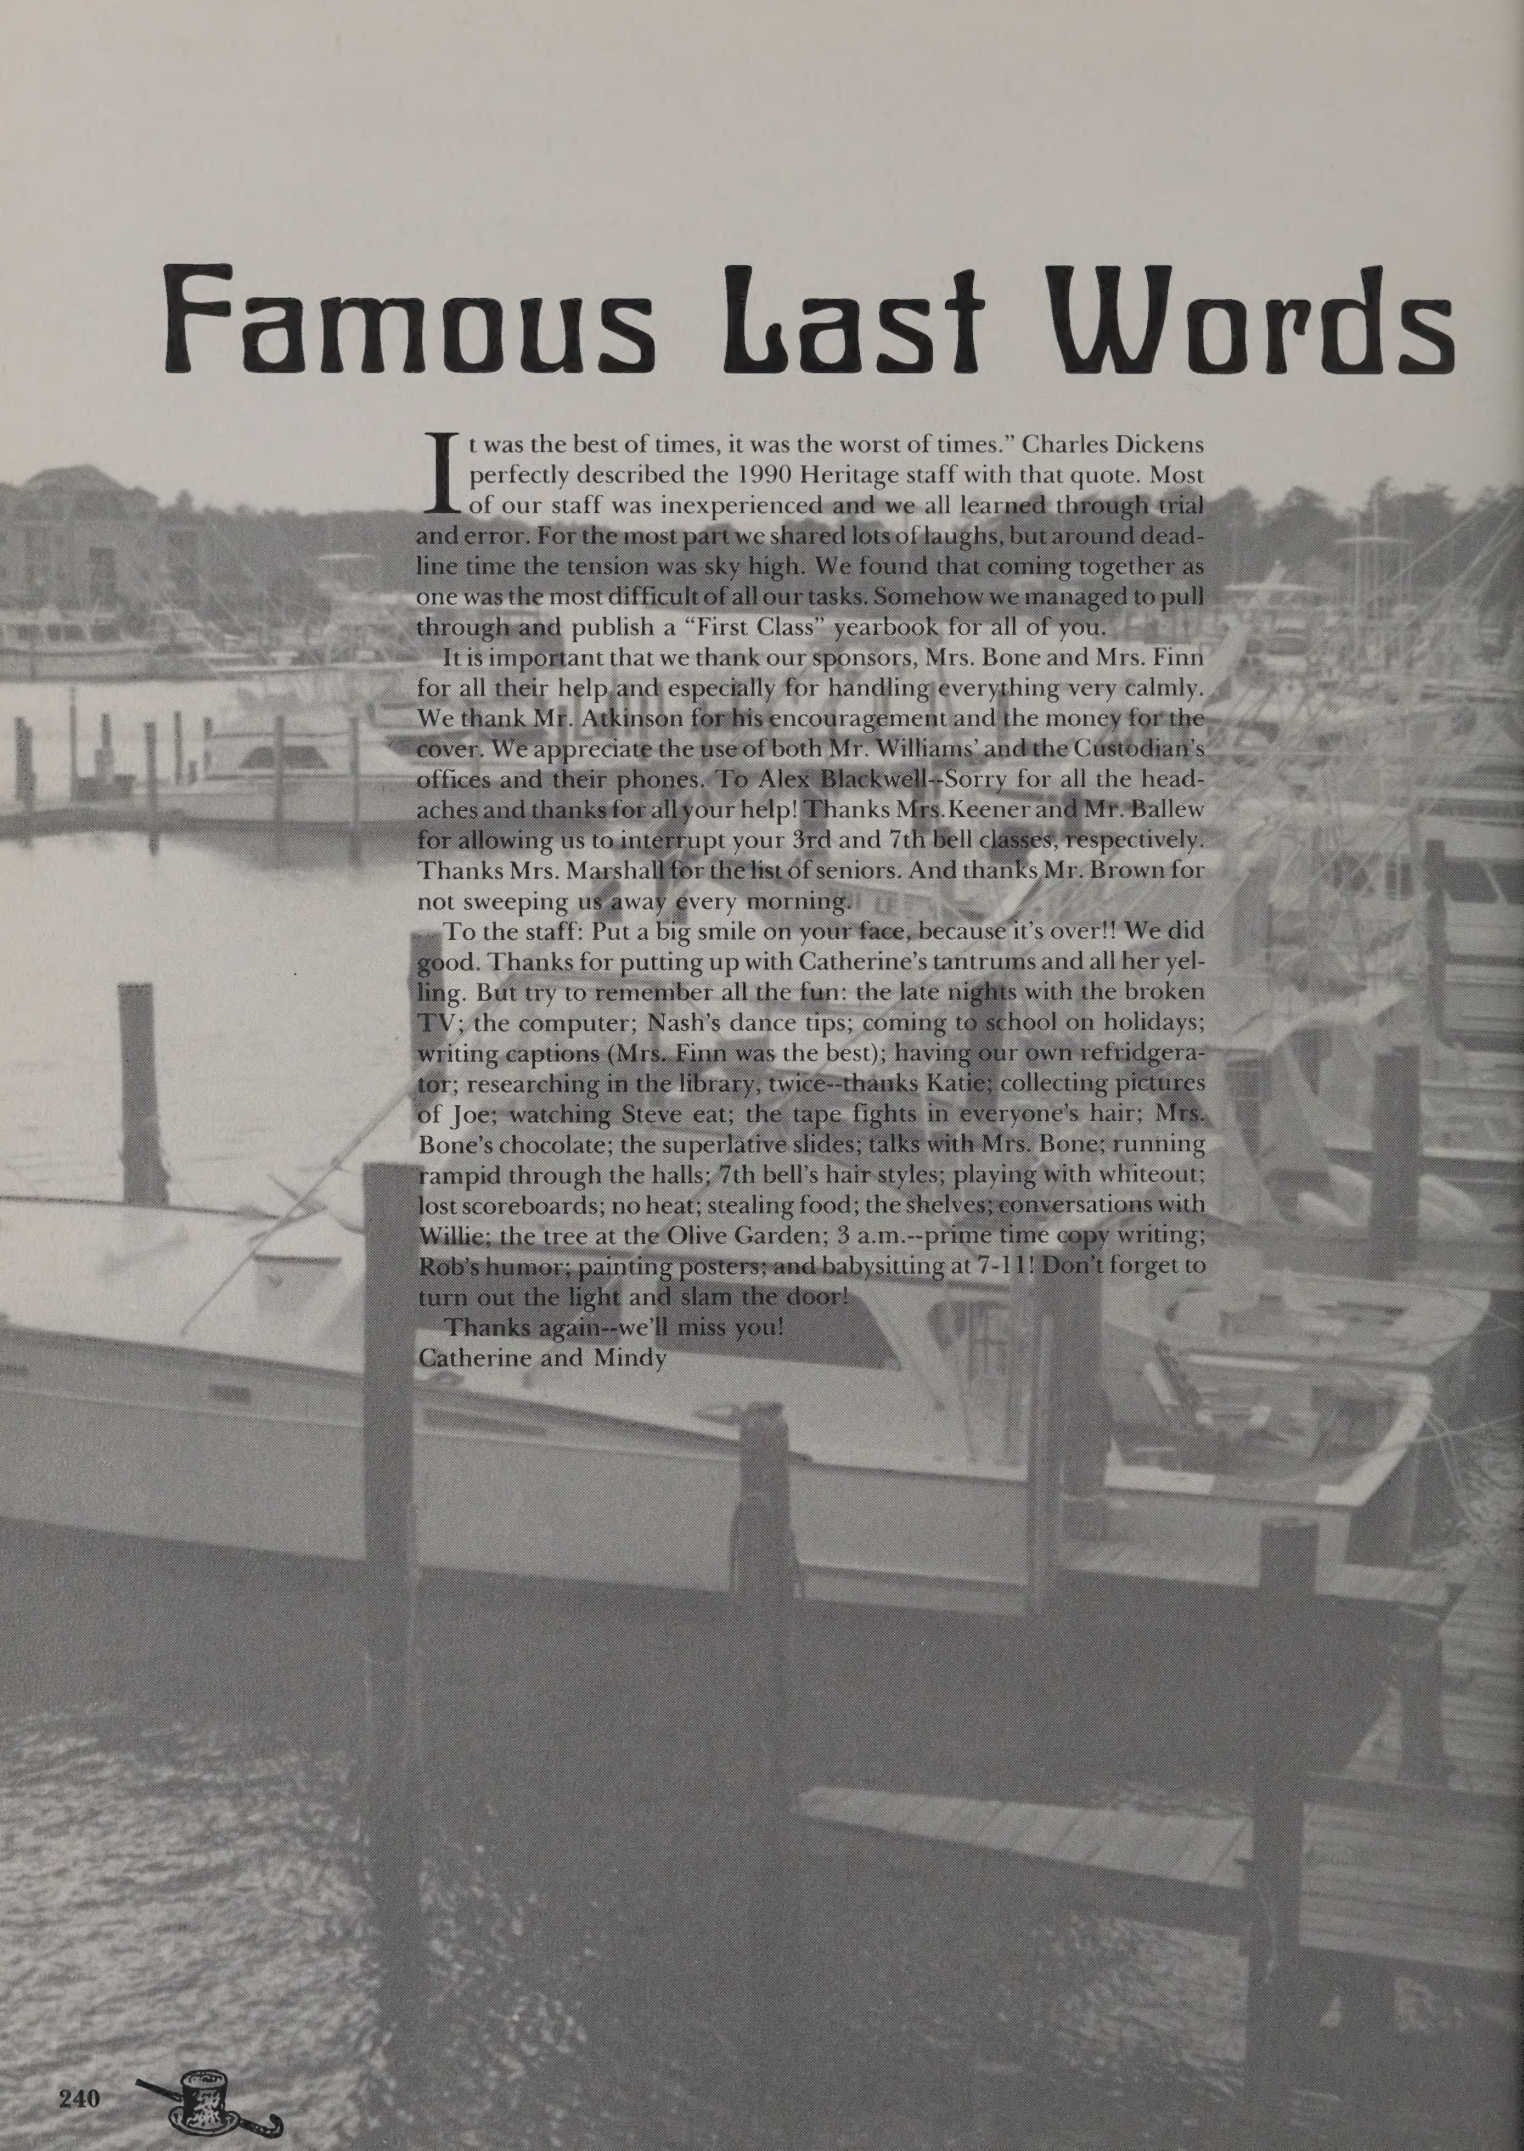
Famous Last Words



It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." Charles Dickens perfectly described the 1990 Heritage staff with that quote. Most of our staff was inexperienced and we all learned through trial and error. For the most part we shared lots of laughs, but around deadline time the tension was sky high. We found that coming together as one was the most difficult of all our tasks. Somehow we managed to pull through and publish a "First Class" yearbook for all of you.

It is important that we thank our sponsors, Mrs. Bone and Mrs. Finn for all their help and especially for handling everything very calmly. We thank Mr. Atkinson for his encouragement and the money for the cover. We appreciate the use of both Mr. Williams' and the Custodian's offices and their phones. To Alex Blackwell--Sorry for all the headaches and thanks for all your help! Thanks Mrs. Keener and Mr. Ballew for allowing us to interrupt your 3rd and 7th bell classes, respectively. Thanks Mrs. Marshall for the list of seniors. And thanks Mr. Brown for not sweeping us away every morning.

To the staff: Put a big smile on your face, because it's over!! We did good. Thanks for putting up with Catherine's tantrums and all her yelling. But try to remember all the fun: the late nights with the broken TV; the computer; Nash's dance tips; coming to school on holidays; writing captions (Mrs. Finn was the best); having our own refridgerator; researching in the library, twice--thanks Katie; collecting pictures of Joe; watching Steve eat; the tape fights in everyone's hair; Mrs. Bone's chocolate; the superlative slides; talks with Mrs. Bone; running rampid through the halls; 7th bell's hair styles; playing with whiteout; lost scoreboards; no heat; stealing food; the shelves; conversations with Willie; the tree at the Olive Garden; 3 a.m.--prime time copy writing; Rob's humor; painting posters; and babysitting at 7-11! Don't forget to turn out the light and slam the door!

Thanks again--we'll miss you!
Catherine and Mindy
